² This column sets forth information with respect to equity holdings only and does not include debt. The amount of CMI's outstanding debt constantly fluctuates. No party providing debt financing to CMI (or any party under common control with the debt provider) holds an attributable interest in CMI or any party under common control with CMI. Consequently, providing information as to debt holdings would have no bearing on the identification of parties with attributable interests in CMI. To the extent such information relating to debt were included, it would merely reduce the percentages of certain parties in this column in the total assets of CMI.
