

Statement of Qualifications

David Zubiri is a graduate of Mt. San Antonio College, Walnut, CA. in 1992 with a Associates Degree in Electronic Communications. He has been a Project Manager with Western Technical Services since 1994. As a Project Manager he has overseen the installation of numerous systems involving the critical alignment and orientation of antennas, both broadcast and microwave. He is a member of the National Association of Radio and Telecommunication Engineers, (N.A.R.T.E.) with a classification as a Master Technician with an endorsement in Microwave Systems.