

Section III
Question 2
Exhibit 9

Wasatch Public Media (“WPM”) is a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah. The corporation is operated exclusively for educational, charitable, scientific and literary purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Specific pursuits and objects of the corporation include radio broadcasting.

WPM will ensure that the Station will serve the interests and needs of Salt Lake City. The Station will maintain a main studio in compliance with Rule 73.1125, and will produce or acquire programs that address issues of importance to the citizens of the area. Such programs will include locally-produced public affairs programs and public service announcements, as well as non-entertainment programs acquired from national sources of programming for noncommercial stations.
