

DECLARATION

I, Martin Guevara, declare as follows:

Joelly Gonzalez filed an Interference Complaint Declaration with the FCC where she claims that she listens to KJJG-LP at her home (located at 1407 Glenmore Dr. Pasadena TX 77503) and while driving "all the time." She does not describe the interference, but states only that she "would listen at home and in my vehicle....and on Oct. 4 the interference from another station began." Ms. Gonzalez claims that before October 4, 2018, her listening in those places and under those circumstances was not troubled by interference. Exhibit A.

Upon checking this interference claim, a preliminary location interference check was done. When parked in front of her home address, I was able to tune to Station KJJG-LP with no problem. I listened to the station for several minutes. I am very familiar with the programming that was being presented on K223CW during the test. I heard no evidence any signal from K223CW at all. Although she states she listens both at home and "on the road," Ms. Gonzalez was not specific on where she receives the interference, nor where she drives, so further checking could be done. Exhibit A.

K223CW has been operating under the same license perimeters ever since it was granted at its current license site. Nothing has changed before or after the October 4, 2018, the date given by Ms. Gonzalez in Exhibit A.

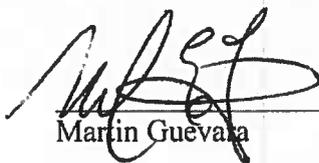

In order to investigate the interference claim, on April 1, 2019, a certified letter with electronic verification was sent to Ms. Joelly Gonzalez. Exhibit B. The US Postal CERTIFIED MAIL receipt is included as Exhibit C. In the CERTIFIED MAIL an envelope pre-stamp was included for Ms. Joelly Gonzalez to return the Declaration Letter attached here as Exhibit D. The CERTIFIED MAIL was DELIVERED, Left with Individual by USPS on April 3, 2019, Electronic Return Receipt included Exhibit E.

Ms. Gonzalez replied back to our CERTIFIED LETTER with a letter dated April 7, 2019. Exhibit F and Exhibit G. This is the same form response as receive from other listeners.

On April 23, 2019 I called Ms. Gonzalez at around 10:18 am. Ms. Gonzalez did not answer the call. I then left a voice mail for her to call me back to set up an appointment. Ms. Gonzalez has not returned my phone call.

No other attempt has been made to contact Ms. Gonzalez.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

Dear Mr. Guevara:

I am in receipt of your undated letter ("Letter") regarding the complaint I filed with the FCC as a result of your FM Translator, K223CW ("Translator"), causing interference to my regular reception of KJJG-LP ("LPFM").

While I appreciate your efforts to resolve the interference, I am unable to return the form you sent with the Letter. The check-off choices in the form simply do not apply. Your Translator is legally obliged to eliminate interference to my regular reception of the LPFM, and your form does nothing to achieve that goal.

I am willing to cooperate with your engineers – but it is up to your staff to contact me to make an appointment. Moreover, an appointment now is premature. You have not indicated that your engineering staff has taken even the most basic steps to analyze the problem. These include:

1. Independently checking on interference at the places indicated in my complaint to the FCC. I do not need to ride the local roads with you or your staff, nor do you need to enter my home or workplace until you show that the interference cannot be discerned by any other means. Kindly perform your own engineering checks first.
2. If you are unable to verify the interference independently of me, I am then willing to meet with you upon presentation of proof that your independent engineering checks did not find the interference noted in my FCC complaint.
3. Please contact me by phone to make an appointment once you have completed items (1) and (2) above.

Thanks for your diligent efforts to eliminate your Translator's interference to the LPFM to which I regularly listen.

Sincerely,

Joelly Gonzalez (04/07/19) (Signature & Date)

DECLARATION

I, Martin Guevara, declare as follows:

Jesus Ramirez filed an Interference Complaint Declaration with the FCC where he claims that he listens to KJJG-LP at his home located at 2714 Dewberry Ln. Pasadena TX. 77502 and "all the time when I'm driving. Mr. Ramirez claims that he used to hear KJJG-LP "all over Pasadena, TX" in the 77502 and 77503 area codes. Mr. Ramirez claims that before October 4, 2018, his listening in those places and under those circumstances was not troubled by interference. Exhibit A.

Upon checking on the interference claims, a preliminary location interference check was done. When parked in front of his home address, I was able to tune to Station KJJG-LP with no problem. I listened to the station for several minutes. I am very familiar with the programming that was being presented on K223CW during the test. I heard no evidence any signal from K223CW at all. Because he did not provide any other specific locations to test, I could not even begin to assess his interference that he claims he receives while driving within the "77502 and 77503" area codes.

In order to investigate the interference claim, on April 1, 2019, a certified letter with electronic verification was sent to Mr. Jesus Ramirez. Exhibit B. The US Postal CERTIFIED MAIL receipt is included as Exhibit C. In the CERTIFIED MAIL an envelope pre-stamp was included for Mr. Jesus Ramirez to return the Declaration Letter attached here as Exhibit D. The CERTIFIED MAIL was DELIVERED, Left with Individual by USPS on April 5, 2019, Electronic Return Receipt included Exhibit E.

On April 23, 2019 I called Mr. Jesus Ramirez. He answered the phone, and after I introduced myself and told him why I was calling. Mr. Ramirez said he did not need to meet me as he was still having interference problems. I explain to Mr. Ramirez that in order to confirm and verify the interference and to hear what he calls interference, per the FCC, we needed to meet. Mr. Ramirez was very insistent about not meeting with me. Mr. Ramirez said that he was working long hours and that he would call me back when ever he had some time to see me. Mr. Ramirez never called me back.

No other attempt has been made to contact Mr. Ramirez.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION

I, Martin Guevara, declare as follows:

Joan Anaya filed an Interference Complaint Declaration with the FCC where Joan Anaya claims to listen to Shalom Radio on the way to work and free time, and sometime at work "but most car and home." It is claimed that when driving on 610 east and 90 west Joan Anaya gets "interference from other radio station like tropical music and Restaurant Commercials."

Upon checking this interference claim, a preliminary location interference check was done. When parked in front of the home address, I was able to tune to Station KJJG-LP with no problem. I listened to the station for several minutes. I am very familiar with the programming that was being presented on K223CW during the test. I heard no evidence any signal from K223CW at all. Although Joan Anaya states he listens both at home and "on his way to work," Mr. Anaya was not specific on where he receives the interference, nor where he drives, so further checking could be done. Exhibit A.

In order to investigate the interference claim, on April 1, 2019, a certified letter with electronic verification was sent to Mr. Joan Anaya. Exhibit B. The US Postal CERTIFIED MAIL receipt is included as Exhibit C. In the CERTIFIED MAIL an envelope pre-stamp was included for Mr. Joan Anaya to return the Declaration Letter attached here as Exhibit D. The CERTIFIED MAIL was DELIVERED, Left with Individual by USPS on April 3, 2019, Electronic Return Receipt included Exhibit E. There was no written response to the letter.

On April 23, 2019 I called Joan Anaya. There was no answer. Joan Anaya is a male. I left a voicemail for him to call me back. Mr. Anaya called me back that same day. After I introduced myself and what I was calling for, Mr. Anaya stated he was refusing to meet with me until I had proof that the interference had been fixed already, Mr. Anaya also mentioned that I was being recorded so that his words would not be changed.

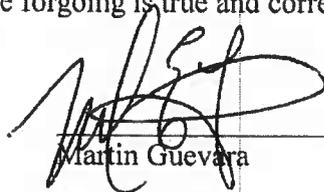

I told Mr. Anaya that per the FCC, the only way to check and verify any interference, I needed to meet with him and listen to what he calls interference. Mr. Anaya said he would call me back to set up the appointment later.

Mr. Anaya called me back that same day and we set up an appointment for April 24, 2019 at 6 pm at Mr. Anaya home address, 716 Nebraska St., South Houston TX 77587. In that conversation, I asked Mr. Anaya if he could tell me a little about what was the nature of the interference, he was listening to. Mr. Anaya said that he would hear two different radio stations, Radio Luv and Radio Vision. That was very odd because I know both stations' programming and neither of them are anywhere close to K223CW. Those two stations are on two different frequencies (94.1 FM and 94.9 FM), neither of which are near K223CW or KJJG-LP. Mr. Anaya also said that he only had 10-15 minutes to meet with me. I told him that I would make the best out of those few minutes.

On April 24, 2019, Mr. Anaya called and identified him self as Joan Israel Anaya, and said he was calling to cancel the appointment that he had for that day and that he was canceling because the interference was still present and that if I wanted to meet with him I need to bring proof that the interference had already been fixed and for me to explain to him how I fixed the interference and not to bother him until that had been done.

No further attempt has been made to contact Mr. Anaya.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION

I, Martin Guevara, declare as follows:

Vanessa Anaya filed an Interference Complaint Declaration with the FCC where she claims that she listens to KJJG-LP in her vehicle and on her way to work. Ms. Anaya claims that before August 30, 2018, her listening in those places and under those circumstances was not troubled by interference. Exhibit A. She claims that she tries to listen to the station "but here is always interference from another station."

A preliminary location interference check was not able to be done as Ms. Anaya did not specifically mention a location. I took it upon myself to check parked in front of Ms. Anaya home address, I was able to tune to Station KJJG-LP with no problem. I listened to the station for several minutes. I am very familiar with the programming that was being presented on K223CW during the test. I heard no evidence any signal from K223CW at all.

K223CW has been operating under the same license perimeters ever since it was granted at its current license site. Nothing has changed before or after the August 30, 2018 date given by Ms. Anaya. (#6 Interference Complaint Declaration). Exhibit A.

In order to investigate the interference claim, on April 1, 2019, a certified letter with electronic verification was sent to Ms. Vanessa Anaya. Exhibit B. The US Postal CERTIFIED MAIL receipt is included as Exhibit C. In the CERTIFIED MAIL an envelope pre-stamp was included for Ms. Anaya to return the Declaration Letter attached here as Exhibit D. The CERTIFIED MAIL was DELIVERED, Left with Individual by USPS on April 3, 2019, Electronic Return Receipt included Exhibit E.

Ms. Anaya replied back to our CERTIFIED LETTER with a letter dated April 8, 2019. Exhibit F and Exhibit G. This is the same form response as receive from other listeners.

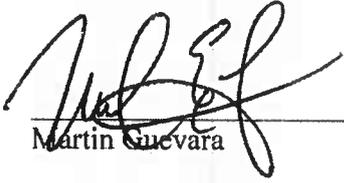

On April 23, 2019 I called Ms. Anaya at around 10:22 am. Ms. Anaya did not answer the call. I then left a voice mail for her to call me back to set up an appointment. Ms. Anaya called me back around 8pm on April 23, 2019 and left me a voice mail where she stated as follow, " I did not wish to set up an appointment until the issue was resolve, and also I would like some prove the issue been resolve and what has been done to get it fix and this call is been recorded for my insurance".

It is very clear that Ms. Anaya, like most of the complaints filed by KJJG-LP (Miguel Hernandez, Maribel Hernandez, Marisol Hernandez, Joan Anaya), are not simply claiming to be radio listeners of KJJG-LP, but are or have interest in the station unlike a regular listener. It appears that Ms. Anaya and all of those named here are been provided advice and instruction to say the same things by the radio owner and/or its attorney. This makes it very difficult or impossible for us to even verify any radio interference if there is any.

In my personal opinion this is not a complaint from a regular radio listener, and it is more like this group of people have been instructed to say the same thing by someone with a great deal of interest in KJJG-LP. These are not complaints from regular, typical, disinterested radio listeners.

No other attempt has been made to contact Ms. Anaya.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

Dear Mr. Guevara:

I am in receipt of your undated letter ("Letter") regarding the complaint I filed with the FCC as a result of your FM Translator, K223CW ("Translator"), causing interference to my regular reception of KJJG-LP ("LPFM").

While I appreciate your efforts to resolve the interference, I am unable to return the form you sent with the Letter. The check-off choices in the form simply do not apply. Your Translator is legally obliged to eliminate interference to my regular reception of the LPFM, and your form does nothing to achieve that goal.

I am willing to cooperate with your engineers – but it is up to your staff to contact me to make an appointment. Moreover, an appointment now is premature. You have not indicated that your engineering staff has taken even the most basic steps to analyze the problem. These include:

1. Independently checking on interference at the places indicated in my complaint to the FCC. I do not need to ride the local roads with you or your staff, nor do you need to enter my home or workplace until you show that the interference cannot be discerned by any other means. Kindly perform your own engineering checks first.
2. If you are unable to verify the interference independently of me, I am then willing to meet with you upon presentation of proof that your independent engineering checks did not find the interference noted in my FCC complaint.
3. Please contact me by phone to make an appointment once you have completed items (1) and (2) above.

Thanks for your diligent efforts to eliminate your Translator's interference to the LPFM to which I regularly listen.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Anaya 4-8-19 (Signature & Date)

DECLARATION

I, Martin Guevara, declare as follows:

Belen Ramirez filed an Interference Complaint Declaration with the FCC where she claims that she listens to KJJG-LP on her way to work in her "moving vehicle." Exhibit A. She claims that when she listens to the station "whenever I do another station is in the background." Ms. Ramirez claims that before September 4, 2018, her listening in those places and under those circumstances was not troubled by interference. Exhibit A.

Ms. Ramirez claims that she listens to KJJG-LP while on her way to work but never mention what her work route or address is. Even after that a preliminary location interference check was done. When parked in front of her home address, I was able to tune to Station KJJG-LP with no problem. I listened to the station for several minutes. I am very familiar with the programming that was being presented on K223CW during the test. I heard no evidence any signal from K223CW at all.

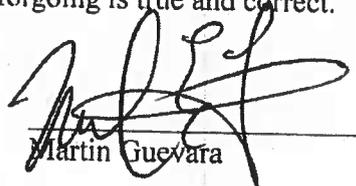

K223CW has been operating under the same license perimeters ever since it was granted at its current license site. Nothing has changed before or after the September 4, 2018 date given by Ms. Ramirez. (#6 Interference Complaint Declaration). Exhibit A.

In order to investigate the interference claim, on April 3, 2019, a certified letter with electronic verification was sent to Ms. Belen Ramirez. Exhibit B. The US Postal CERTIFIED MAIL receipt is included as Exhibit C. In the CERTIFIED MAIL an envelope pre-stamp was included for Ms. Belen Ramirez to return the Declaration Letter attached here as Exhibit D. US Postal Service return the CERTIFIED LETTER sent to Ms. Ramirez as Unclaimed/Being Return to Sender on April 26, 2019. Exhibit E.

On April 23, 2019 I called Ms. Belen Ramirez and was not able to leave a voicemail as Ms. Ramirez voicemail was full.

No other attempt has been made to contact Ms. Belen Ramirez.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION

I, Martin Guevara, declare as follows:

Martina Campos filed an Interference Complaint Declaration with the FCC where she claims that she listens to KJJG-LP in her truck and whenever she has time to listen. Exhibit A. She states she listens when she drives to the store or runs errands in the Pasadena and South Houston area. Exhibit A. She claims only that the interference consists of another type of music that is "no es Cristiana" (i.e., not Christian). Ms. Campos claims that before October, 2018, her listening in those places and under those circumstances was not troubled by interference. Exhibit A.

Ms. Campos was not specific on any location where she listens to Station KJJG-LP. I took it upon myself on checking the interference claims. A preliminary location interference check was done. When parked in front of her home address, I was able to tune to Station KJJG-LP with no problem. I listened to the station for several minutes. I am very familiar with the programming that was being presented on K223CW during the test. I heard no evidence any signal from K223CW at all. The "Pasadena and South Houston area" that she evidently drives in is approximately 47 combined square miles, making this impossible for me to pinpoint a location to further test her interference claims.

K223CW has been operating under the same license perimeters ever since it was granted at its current license site. Nothing has changed before or after the October, 2018 date given by Ms. Campos. Exhibit A.

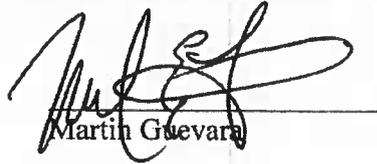

In order to investigate the interference claim, on April 1, 2019, a certified letter with electronic verification was sent to Ms. Martina Campos. Exhibit B. The US Postal CERTIFIED MAIL receipt is included as Exhibit C. In the CERTIFIED MAIL an envelope pre-stamp was included for Ms. Martina Campos to return the Declaration Letter attached here as Exhibit D. The CERTIFIED MAIL was DELIVERED, Left with Individual by USPS on April 3, 2019, Electronic Return Receipt included Exhibit E.

Ms. Campos replied back to our CERTIFIED LETTER with a letter dated April 8, 2019. Exhibit F and Exhibit G. In that form letter response, she refused to meet with us further unless and until we could provide proof that the interference was already eliminated. This is the same form response as receive from other listeners.

On April 23, 2019 I called Ms. Campos at around 10:24 am. Ms. Campos did not answer the call. I was unable to leave any voice mail as Ms. Campos mail box was not been set up to receive voicemail .

No other attempt has been made to contact Ms. Campos.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.
