The stock may be converted to voting common only upon receipt of any FCC consents which may be required by applicable law. Neither CCC nor any of its subsidiaries, including CCB (collectively, "Clear Channel"), holds any option to acquire additional stock in HBC, and there is no debtor-creditor relationship between Clear Channel and HBC. Furthermore, neither Clear Channel nor HBC programs any station licensed to the other pursuant to a local marketing agreement, nor does either company sell time on any station licensed to the other pursuant to a joint sales agreement. Finally, no principal of Clear Channel or HBC serves on the board of directors or as an officer of the other company. The Commission is aware of these facts and has previously approved of Clear Channel's interest in HBC.
