

DETERMINATION OF POPULATION AND LAND AREA CALCULATIONS

All area and population data has been calculated using 2000 U.S. Census data as imported into RadioSoft Comstudy software. Population is counted at the block level using the centroid method. Area is calculated by determining the portion of the contour which overlaps the Census provided shape file boundary. Water area outside the County boundary is excluded from area computations.