COVENANT is not in material violation of any statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order or decree of any federal, state, local or foreign governmental agency, court or authority having jurisdiction over it or over any part of its operations or assets, which material default or violation would have an adverse effect on COVENANT's ability to perform this Agreement. During the term of this Agreement, COVENANT shall maintain the transmission facility and the broadcast output with the same quality, normal wear and tear excepted, to broadcast to the same power and height as Station is presently authorized by the FCC. Any maintenance work, other than emergency repairs, which prevent the operation of the Station at full power and maximum facility, shall not be scheduled without giving at least forty-eight (48) hours notice to Broker, unless Broker waives such notice.

Within twenty-four (24) hours of any request to purchase time on the Station on behalf of a candidate for public office or to support or urge defeat of an issue on an election ballot, Broker shall report the request, and its disposition, to COVENANT so that appropriate records can be placed in the Station's public file.

a. To the extent not covered by COVENANT's insurance policies, Broker shall indemnify and hold harmless COVENANT from and against any and all claims, losses, costs, liabilities, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of (i) programming exclusively provided by Broker, and (ii) any breach by Broker of its representations, warranties, covenants, or obligations under this Agreement.

b. To the extent not covered by Broker's insurance policies, COVENANT shall indemnify and hold harmless Broker from and against any and all claims, losses, costs, liabilities, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of (i) programming exclusively provided by COVENANT, and (ii) any breach by COVENANT of its representations, warranties, covenants, or obligations under this Agreement.

c. The indemnification obligations of this Section 14 shall survive any termination of this Agreement and shall continue until the expiration of all applicable statutes of limitations and the conclusion and payment of all judgments which may be rendered in all litigation which may be commenced prior to such expiration.

d. The party seeking indemnification under this Section ("Indemnitee") shall give the party from whom it seeks indemnification ("Indemnitor") prompt notice, in accordance with Section 20, of the assertion of any such claim; provided, however, that the failure to give notice of a claim within a reasonable time shall only relieve the Indemnitor of liability to the extent it is materially prejudiced thereby. Promptly after receipt of written notice, as provided herein, of a claim by a person or entity not a party to this Agreement, the Indemnitor shall assume the defense of such claim; provided, however, that (i) if the Indemnitor fails, within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice of such claim, to assume the defense, compromise, and settlement of such claim on behalf of and for the account and risk of the Indemnitor, subject to the right of the Indemnitor (upon notifying the Indemnitee of its election to do so) to assume the defense of such claim at any time prior to the settlement, compromise, judgment, or other final determination thereof, or if in the reasonable judgment of the Indemnitee, based on the advice of its counsel, a direct or indirect conflict of interest exists between the Indemnitee and the Indemnitor, the Indemnitee shall (upon notifying the Indemnitor of its election to do so) have the right to undertake the defense, compromise, and settlement of such claim on behalf of and for the account and risk of the Indemnitor (it being understood and agreed that the Indemnitor shall not be entitled to assume the defense of such claim), and (ii) if the Indemnitee in its sole discretion so elects, it shall (upon notifying the Indemnitor of its election to do so) be entitled to employ separate counsel and to participate in the defense of such claim, but the fees and expenses of counsel so employed shall (except as contemplated by clause (i) above) be borne solely by the Indemnitee. The Indemnitor shall not settle or compromise (x) any claim or consent to the entry of any judgment that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the grant by the claimant or plaintiff to each Indemnitee of a release from any and all liability in respect thereof, or (y) any claim in any manner, or consent to the entry of any judgment, that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Indemnitee. If upon presentation of a claim for indemnity hereunder, the Indemnitor does not agree that all, or part, of such claim is subject to the indemnification obligations imposed upon it pursuant to this Agreement, it shall promptly so notify the Indemnitee. Thereupon, the parties shall attempt to resolve their dispute, including where appropriate, reaching an agreement as to that portion of the claim, if any, which both concede is subject to indemnification. All unperformed agreements and contracts for advertising to be aired during Broker's time shall automatically belong to COVENANT who shall perform such agreements and contracts for which it shall be entitled to collect and receive the money derived therefrom. Broker shall remit to COVENANT any money or consideration it shall have received as pre-payment for such unaired advertising. Broker shall be entitled to all uncollected revenue for advertising already broadcast over the Station prior to such termination, and COVENANT shall pay over to Broker any sums received in respect of same.

c. In the event of termination hereunder, COVENANT shall be entitled to
