4.2 Authority for Transaction. Seller's execution and delivery of this Agreement, its compliance with the provisions hereof and the consummation of all of the transactions contemplated hereby have all been duly and validly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Seller, and this Agreement is valid and binding upon Seller in accordance with its terms.

Seller has not engaged in any activity which would cause revocation or suspension of any such permits, licenses, franchises or authorizations, and no complaint, action or proceeding looking to or contemplating the revocation or suspension of any thereof is pending or, to the knowledge of Seller, threatened. Further, on the Closing Date, the FCC License will be in good standing and have been renewed, if applicable, without adverse condition, the Station will have full operating authority under its licenses and permits, all FCC requirements for such authority will have been met, and there will be no uncorrected FCC violations, notices or unsatisfied FCC inquiries.

4.7 Legal Proceedings, Etc. No litigation, court or administrative proceeding is pending or, so far as is known to the Seller, threatened against Seller relating to the Station or any Asset to be conveyed hereunder which would affect Buyer's enjoyment of the Assets, or which would hinder or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and Seller does not know, or have reasonable grounds to know, of any basis for any such possible action.

4.8 Compliance with Licenses, Laws, Regulations and Orders. Seller, at Closing, will be in compliance with all material terms and conditions of all Licenses, laws, regulations and orders applicable to its business and operations including, without limitation, compliance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Federal Communications Act,"), all regulations issued by the FCC, and all applicable environmental laws, regulations or permits applicable to any real property subject to a lease that is an Assigned Contract. All of Seller's Assets operate in compliance with all material terms and conditions of the FCC License.

4.9 No Conflict. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, nor compliance by Seller with any of the provisions hereof, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will:

(a) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the Seller's Articles of Organization or limited liability company Operating Agreement;

(b) result in a default, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration, under any term, condition or provision of any contract, encumbrance or other instrument or obligation to which Seller is a party or by which Seller or any of the Assets may be bound; or

(c) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Seller or any of its Assets.

4.11 Insurance. The insurance policies owned by Seller or of which Seller is a named beneficiary are now and through the Closing Date will be fully in effect in accordance with their terms, with no default in the payment of premiums on any such policy and no ground for cancellation or avoidance of any portion thereof or for reduction of the coverage provided thereby. The current insurance coverage for the Assets is set forth on Schedule 4.11 hereto.

4.12 Liabilities. As of the Closing Date, all of Seller's liabilities, except for those liabilities arising on or after the Closing Date relating to the Assigned Contracts, shall have been paid and discharged, or consents for the sale shall have been obtained from Seller's creditors, and no creditors of Seller shall have any claim on the Assets for payment of such liabilities.

4.13 No Misleading Statements. The representations and warranties of Seller herein, or in any Schedule hereto, do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained herein or therein not materially misleading.

4.14 Broker. Seller has not incurred nor become liable for any broker's commission or finder's fee relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement. Seller agrees to indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from any claims for brokerage fees, finder's fees or commissions asserted by any person acting on Seller's behalf in connection with this transaction.

4.16 Remaining Assets. This sale is not a sale of fifty percent or more of Seller's assets that requires reporting to the Commissioner of Labor pursuant to 21 V.S.A. §1322.

4.17. Assigned Contracts. With regard to the Amended and Restated Sublease Agreement dated January 6, 2000 between original parties Stokes Communication Corporation and E & M 92 Corporation (the "Randolph Tower Space Lease"): (i) the Randolph Tower Space Lease can be, and at Closing will be, unconditionally assigned by Seller (as assignee of the sublessee interest of Stokes Communications Corporation pursuant to such lease) to Buyer; (ii) Seller is not in default pursuant to the Randolph Tower Space Lease, and it is not aware of any uncured default on the part of the sublessor pursuant to such lease; (iii) at Closing, Buyer as Seller's assignee will be able to succeed to all rights of the sublessee under the Randolph Tower Space Lease; and (iv) Seller has received no notice of any uncured default by (a) the sublessor under the terms of the lease between Idora Tucker and Stokes Communication Corporation dated November 20, 1992 referenced in Section 1 of the Randolph Tower Space Lease, or (b) any party under the License Agreement dated February 4, 1993 (as amended) with the Town of Randolph, Vermont referenced in the first background paragraph of the Randolph Tower Space Lease.

With regard to the Lease Agreement for Crafts Hill, West Lebanon, New Hampshire – Stokes Communications dated September 28, 1995 between original parties Stokes Communication Corporation and New England Telephone and Telegraph Company (the “Crafts Hill Tower Space Lease”): (i) the Crafts Hill Tower Space Lease can be, and at Closing will be, unconditionally assigned by Seller (as assignee of the Stokes Communications Corporation’s tenant’s interest pursuant to such lease) to Buyer upon the written consent of the current assignee of New England Telephone and Telegraph Company’s landlord’s interest in the Crafts Hill Tower Space Lease, which is Fairpoint Communications; (ii) Seller is not in default pursuant to the Crafts Hill Tower Space Lease, and it is not aware of any uncured default on the part of the landlord pursuant to such lease; and (iii) at Closing, Buyer as Seller’s assignee will be able to succeed to all rights of the tenant under the Crafts Hill Tower Space Lease upon the written consent of the landlord.

4.18. Schedules. Each Schedule attached hereto is incorporated into the representations and warranties of the Seller made herein, and the information therein shall be accurate, true and correct as of the date to which such representation or warranty relates, whether as of the date of this Agreement, as of the Closing Date (except as updated by Seller in writing prior to the Closing), or both. Each Schedule shall be accompanied by a copy of each document specifically referred to therein. Between the date of the Agreement and the Closing Date, Seller shall, from time to time, promptly update the Schedules so as to maintain the accuracy of the information contained therein, and shall promptly supply to Buyer copies of any new documents specifically referenced in such Schedules.

5 Buyer's Representations and Warranties. The following representations and warranties shall survive for one (1) year from the Closing Date. The Buyer represents and warrants to Seller, as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date, as follows:

5.1 Buyer's Qualifications. Buyer is legally and financially qualified to acquire the Station. Buyer knows of no fact or circumstance which would, under the federal antitrust laws, the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or the rules, regulations, and policies of the FCC, disqualify or preclude Buyer from being approved as an assignee of the Licenses. Should Buyer become aware of any such fact or circumstance, it will promptly so inform Seller, and Buyer will use its best efforts to remove any such disqualification or preclusion. Buyer will not take any action that Buyer knows, or has reason to believe, would result in such disqualification. There are no facts which, under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or the rules, regulations and policies of the FCC, or the antitrust policies as applied to the broadcasting industry by the Federal Trade Commission and the U.S. Department of Justice, would delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Buyer has no reason to believe that the Assignment Application contemplated by this Agreement might be challenged by a governmental agency or third party or might not be granted by the FCC in due ordinary course. To Buyer's knowledge, there are no proceedings, complaints, notices of forfeiture, claims, or investigations pending or threatened against Buyer or any principal, officer, director, or owner of Buyer that would materially impair the qualification of Buyer to assume the FCC License or which would materially impede Buyer's ability to prosecute FCC applications or seek the grant of the FCC Consents.

5.2 Formation, Standing and Power. The Buyer is a public corporation duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Vermont. Buyer has all necessary power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to comply with the provisions hereof and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.3 Authority for Transaction; Funding. Buyer's execution and delivery of this Agreement, its compliance with the provisions hereof and the consummation of all of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Buyer, and this Agreement is valid and binding upon Buyer in accordance with its terms. Buyer has access to sufficient funds in cash or cash equivalents and will at the Closing have sufficient immediately available funds to pay the Purchase Price and to pay any other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement.

5.4 No Conflict. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Buyer, nor compliance by Buyer with any of the provisions hereof, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and/or thereby will:

- (a) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the governing documents of Buyer;
- (b) result in a default, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration, under any term, condition or provision of any contract, encumbrance or other instrument or obligation to which Buyer is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets may be bound; or
- (c) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Buyer or any of its properties or assets.

Except for the approval of the FCC, no consent, waiver or approval by, notice to or filing with any person or entity is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Buyer, compliance by Buyer with any of the provisions hereof and thereof or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

5.5 Legal Proceedings, Etc. There is no legal, equitable, administrative or arbitration action, suit, proceeding or known investigation pending or, to Buyer's knowledge, threatened against or affecting Buyer or any of its assets which, if adversely determined, would adversely affect the ability of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.6 No Misleading Statements. The representations and warranties of Buyer herein and in any Schedule hereto do not contain any untrue statements of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained herein or therein not materially misleading.

5.7 Broker. Buyer has not incurred nor become liable for any broker's commission or finder's fee relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement. Buyer agrees to indemnify and hold Seller harmless from any claims for brokerage fees, finder's fees or commissions asserted by any person acting on Buyer's behalf in connection with this transaction.

6 Seller's Covenants.

6.1 Indemnification.

(a) Except as provided in Sections 11 and 6.6 of this Agreement, the sole and exclusive remedy which Buyer shall have against Seller under this Agreement after the Closing Date shall be the right to proceed for indemnification in the manner and only to the extent provided by this Section 6. Seller hereby indemnifies Buyer and holds it and its agents, successors and assigns harmless, with respect to demands for indemnification asserted by Buyer, as provided by this Section 6.1, within one (1) year after the Closing Date from, against and in respect of:

(1) all liabilities, obligations, claims against and contracts of Seller of every kind and nature whatsoever, at any time existing or asserted, whether or not accrued, whether fixed, contingent or otherwise, whether known or unknown, and whether or not recorded on the books and records of Seller, arising out of or by reason of this or any other transaction or event occurring prior or subsequent to the Closing, which have not been assumed by Buyer; and

(2) all losses, damages and deficiencies resulting from any failure or breach of any representation or warranty, or any breach or nonfulfillment of any covenant or agreement, of Seller made in this Agreement; and

(3) all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, assessments, judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incident to any of the foregoing.

(b) If a demand for indemnification arises out of a claim made against Buyer by a person not a party to this Agreement or affiliated with a party to this Agreement (a "Third Party Claim"), Buyer shall give prompt notice thereof to Seller, stating in reasonable detail the nature of the Third Party Claim, the identity of the Third Party Claimant and the specific representations, warranties or covenants which Buyer contends Seller has breached. Such notice shall also indicate whether Buyer intends to defend against the Third Party Claim. If Buyer shall defend against the Third Party Claim, Seller shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with Buyer in such defense, shall make available to Buyer all records and other materials reasonably required by Buyer in such defense, and shall have the right to participate in such defense. If Buyer does not intend to defend against the Third Party Claim, then Seller may assume defense of the Third Party Claim through legal counsel of its choice reasonably satisfactory to Buyer, in which event Buyer shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with Seller in such defense, and shall make available to Seller and its counsel all records and other materials reasonably required by them in such defense, but Seller shall at all times control such defense. So long as a Third Party Claim is pending and is not resolved, Buyer shall hold in abeyance its demand for indemnification. If Seller reaches a settlement with the Third Party Claimant which results in any liability to Buyer, or if a judgment is rendered against Buyer which judgment is not properly appealed or appealable, then Buyer shall be entitled to indemnification in an amount sufficient to discharge the Third Party Claim. Each party shall be responsible for its own costs and expenses, including legal fees, incurred in defending a Third Party Claim except that Seller shall pay Buyer's actual costs and expenses (including legal fees) incurred in connection with defending a claim which is determined adversely to Seller and which shall be found to have constituted a breach of Seller's representations, warranties and covenants hereunder.

(c) If Buyer asserts a demand for indemnification hereunder, but such demand is not based upon a Third Party Claim, Buyer shall notify Seller thereof, stating in reasonable detail the nature of Buyer's claim and the specific representations, warranties and covenants which Buyer contends Seller has breached. Seller shall have fifteen (15) days after the effective date of such notice to accept or reject Buyer's demand for indemnification. If Seller accepts such demand for indemnification, Seller shall pay the amount of indemnification claimed by Buyer. If no acceptance is received by Buyer within such 15-day period, Seller shall be deemed to have rejected the demand. In the event Seller rejects Buyer's demand for indemnification or fails to accept such demand within such 15-day period, the parties shall immediately submit the controversy to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1(d). If the arbitrator(s) render an award in the arbitration proceeding in favor of Buyer, Buyer shall be entitled to indemnification to the extent provided in such award. If the arbitrator(s) render an award in favor of Seller, Seller shall have no further liability on Buyer's claim.

(d) If there is any disagreement between Buyer and Seller concerning the validity of any demand for indemnification asserted under Section 6.1, then such disagreement shall, as provided by Section 6.1(c) or otherwise on demand of either party, be referred to arbitration in Burlington, Vermont. Buyer and Seller shall attempt to agree on the appointment of a single arbitrator. If they are unable to agree, a panel of three arbitrators shall be appointed: one arbitrator shall be appointed by Buyer, one shall be appointed by Seller, and one shall be appointed by the two so appointed. The determination in writing of such arbitrator(s), signed by at least two of them (if there be more than one), shall be final and binding on the parties. Such determination shall be made as soon as practicable after the reference of the claim to arbitration. The arbitrators shall be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect, and shall have full power to make such regulations and to give such orders and directions in all respects as they shall deem expedient, as well as in respect to the claims and differences referred to them, and also with respect to the mode and times of executing and performing any of the acts or things which may be awarded or directed to be done. The arbitrator(s) shall also allocate among the parties the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and the actual costs and expenses (including legal fees) incurred by the parties in connection with the arbitration in an equitable manner consistent with the decision of the arbitrator(s) regarding the resolution of the claims and differences referred to them, which allocation shall form part of the arbitrator(s)' written determination.

(e) Seller's liability for all Claims under this Section 6 shall be subject to the following limitations: (i) Seller shall have no liability for Claims until the aggregate amount of the Claims incurred exceeds Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) (the "Minimum Loss"); after the Minimum Loss is exceeded, Buyer shall be entitled to be paid the entire amount of the Claims, including the Minimum Loss, subject to the limitations on recovery and recourse set forth in this Section 6; and (ii) Seller's aggregate liability for all Claims under this Section 6 shall not exceed the Purchase Price.

6.2 Access and Information. Seller shall give Buyer and its officers, employees and representatives full but reasonable access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to Closing to the offices, operations, properties, books, contracts, agreements, leases, commitments and records (financial and otherwise) of the Station; provided, however, that Buyer shall give Seller reasonable advance notice of exercising this right. Seller shall furnish to Buyer all information concerning the Station affairs as Buyer may reasonably request.

6.3 Conduct of Station Business. Prior to Closing, without the written consent of Buyer, Seller shall not enter into any transaction other than those in the ordinary course of the business of the Station; during the period until Closing the Seller shall operate the Station in the normal and usual manner; no employment contract shall be entered into by Seller relating to the Station, unless the same is terminable at will and without penalty; Seller shall not increase the compensation paid any employee of the Station or hire additional personnel for the Station, except as required in the ordinary course of business. Seller will maintain in force the insurance in effect on the date hereof; Seller will not make any material change in the price or terms of advertising.

6.4 Risk of Loss. Seller shall bear all risk of loss or damage to any of the Assets to be transferred to Buyer hereunder occurring prior to the Closing. In the event any loss or damage occurs, the proceeds of any insurance policy covering such loss shall be used by Seller to repair, replace or restore any such loss prior to the Closing; provided, however, that, if the proceeds of such insurance would not be sufficient to repair, replace or restore the loss, or if the loss includes damage to the applicable tower beyond the scope of insurance carried by Seller and Seller does not wish to provide additional funds for such purpose upon request by Buyer, Buyer if not then in default may terminate this Agreement. In the event such loss or damage prevents the broadcast transmission of the Station in conformance with FCC requirements, Seller shall give prompt written notice thereof to Buyer. If Seller cannot restore the facilities so that transmission can be resumed in conformance with FCC requirements within fourteen (14) days, Buyer, if not then in default, shall have the option after such 14-day period to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Seller during the continuance of such transmission failure or within twenty (20) calendar days thereafter. In the event of any such termination pursuant to this Section 6.4 neither party shall have any further right or liability hereunder.

6.5 Other Proposals. Seller shall not, nor shall Seller permit any of its members, employees, agents, directors or officers to, solicit or entertain any inquiries or proposals or participate in any discussions, negotiations or agreements relating to the sale of the Station set forth on Schedule 1.1 prior to the Closing Date. Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrain Seller or any of their related or affiliated entities from discussing, soliciting or entertaining any inquiries or proposals related to the sale of any stations not listed on Schedule 1.1.

6.6 Covenant Regarding Transmitter (W272AU). Seller covenants that the Station transmitter located in Randolph, Vermont (the "Transmitter") shall at the time of Closing, and for two hundred and seventy (270) days thereafter, remain in condition reasonably satisfactory for operation in accordance with the terms of its license, provided that (i) routine maintenance in accord with past practices is provided by Buyer or its agents at Buyer's cost throughout such 270 day period, and (ii) no casualty loss or act of God affecting such transmitter occurs during such 270 day period. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the obligations of Seller pursuant to this Section 6.6 shall (i) not be subject to the Minimum Loss requirement set forth in 6.1(e), and any damages paid in connection with this Section 6.6 shall not count towards satisfaction of such Minimum Loss requirement; (ii) the satisfaction of any claims arising in connection with this Section 6.6 shall be satisfied solely from the Transmitter Escrow, without recourse to any other assets of the Seller; and (iii) Buyer shall have no claim, and Seller no liability, with regard to the condition of the Transmitter other than pursuant to this Section 6.6. All obligations of Seller pursuant to this Section 6.6 and the Transmitter Escrow shall terminate upon the last day of the 270 day period referenced above, except with respect to, and only to the extent of, any claim made by Buyer pursuant to this Section 6.6 on or prior to such last day.

7 Buyer's Covenants.

7.1 Indemnification.

(a) Buyer shall be responsible for and hereby indemnifies Seller and holds Seller and its agents, successors and assigns harmless, with respect to demands for indemnification asserted by Seller, as provided by this Section 7.1, within one (1) year after the Closing Date from, against and in respect of:

(1) The operation of the Station subsequent to the Closing, including, but not limited to any and all claims, liabilities and obligations arising or required to be performed under the Assigned Contracts assumed by Buyer;

(2) All losses, damages and deficiencies resulting from any failure or breach of any representation or warranty, or any breach or non-fulfillment of any covenant or agreement, of Buyer made in this Agreement; and

(3) All actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, assessments, judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incident to any of the foregoing.

(b) If a demand for indemnification arises out of a claim made against Seller by a person not a party to this Agreement or affiliated with a party to this Agreement (a "Third Party Claim"), Seller shall give prompt notice thereof to Buyer, stating in reasonable detail the nature of the Third Party Claim and the specific representations, warranties or covenants which Seller contends Buyer has breached. Such notice shall also indicate whether Seller intends to defend against the Third Party Claim. If Seller shall defend against the Third Party Claim, Buyer shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with Seller in such defense, shall make available to Seller all records and other materials reasonably required by Seller in such defense, and shall have the right to participate in such defense. If Seller does not intend to defend against the Third Party Claim, then Buyer may assume defense of the Third Party Claim through legal counsel of its choice, reasonably satisfactory to Seller, in which event Seller shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with Buyer in such defense and shall make available to Buyer and its counsel all records and other materials reasonably required by them in such defense, but Buyer shall at all times control such defense. If Buyer reaches a settlement with the Third Party Claimant which results in any liability to Seller, or if a judgment is rendered against Seller which judgment is not properly appealed or appealable, then Seller shall be entitled to indemnification in an amount sufficient to discharge the Third Party Claim. Each party shall be responsible for its own costs and expenses, including legal fees, incurred in defending a Third Party Claim except that Buyer shall pay (i) Seller's actual costs and expenses (including legal fees) incurred in connection with defending a claim which is determined adversely to Buyer and which shall be found to have constituted a breach of Buyer's representations, warranties and covenants hereunder.

(c) If Seller asserts a demand for indemnification hereunder, but such demand is not based upon a Third Party Claim, Seller shall notify Buyer thereof, stating in reasonable detail the nature of Seller's claim and the specific representations, warranties and covenants which Seller contend Buyer has breached. Buyer shall have fifteen (15) days after the effective date of such notice to accept or reject Seller's demand for indemnification. If Buyer accepts such demand for indemnification, it shall pay the amount of indemnification claimed by Seller. If no acceptance is received by Seller within such 15-day period, Buyer shall be deemed to have rejected the demand. In the event Buyer rejects Seller's demand for indemnification or fails to accept such demand within such 15-day period, the parties shall immediately submit the controversy to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.1(d). If the arbitrator(s) render an award in the arbitration proceeding in favor of Seller, Seller shall be entitled to indemnification to the extent provided in such award. If the arbitrator(s) render an award in favor of Buyer, Buyer shall have no further liability on Seller's claim.

(d) If there is any disagreement between Seller and Buyer concerning the validity of any demand for indemnification asserted under Section 7.1, then such disagreement shall, as provided by Section 7.1(c) or otherwise on demand of either party, be referred to arbitration in Burlington, Vermont. Buyer and Seller shall attempt to agree on the appointment of a single arbitrator. If they are unable to agree, a panel of three arbitrators shall be appointed: one arbitrator shall be appointed by Buyer, one shall be appointed by Seller, and one shall be appointed by the two so appointed. The determination in writing of such arbitrator(s), signed by at least two of them (if there be more than one), shall be final and binding on the parties. Such determination shall be made as soon as practicable after the reference of the claim to arbitration. The arbitrators shall be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect, and shall have full power to make such regulations and to give such orders and directions in all respects as they shall deem expedient, as well as in respect to the claims and differences referred to them, and also with respect to the mode and times of executing and performing any of the acts or things which may be awarded or directed to be done. The arbitrators shall also allocate among the parties the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and the actual costs and expenses (including legal fees) incurred by the parties in connection with the arbitration in an equitable manner consistent with the decision of the arbitrator(s) regarding the resolution of the claims and differences referred to them, which allocation shall form part of the arbitrator(s)' written determination.

(e) Buyer's liability for all Claims under this Section 7 shall be subject to the following limitations: (i) Buyer shall have no liability for Claims until the aggregate amount of the Claims incurred exceeds Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) (the "Buyer Minimum Loss"); after the Buyer Minimum Loss is exceeded, Seller shall be entitled to be paid the entire amount of the Claims, including the Buyer Minimum Loss, subject to the limitations on recovery and recourse set forth in this Section 7; and (ii) Buyer's aggregate liability for all Claims under this Section 7 shall not exceed the Purchase Price.

8 Application for FCC Approval.

8.1 Filing and Prosecution of Application. Buyer and Seller shall, not later than ten (10) business days from the date of this Agreement file with the FCC an application requesting its written consent to the assignment of the Licenses of the Station from Seller to Buyer. Buyer and Seller shall proceed with due diligence and promptly take all steps necessary to the expeditious prosecution of such application to a favorable conclusion using their commercially reasonable efforts throughout. In addition, after the date of this Agreement, Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the filing by Buyer of a contingent license application to convert the Station to non-commercial status following the Closing; any out-of-pocket costs associated with such filing (including FCC application fees) shall be paid by Buyer.

8.2 Expenses. Each party shall bear its own expenses in connection with the preparation of the applicable sections of the FCC application and in connection with the prosecution of such application. Seller and Buyer will divide and pay equally any filing fee or grant fee imposed by the FCC or any FCC fees or FCC expenses incurred with regard to a joint application. Each party shall pay its own attorneys for such work.

8.3 Designation for Hearing. If, for any reason, with respect to any application for assignment of the Licenses, the staff of the FCC advises that designation for hearing will be required, either party, if not then in default, shall have the right, by written notice within sixty (60) days of such notification, to terminate this Agreement, in which event neither party shall have any further rights or liabilities hereunder.

8.4 Time of FCC Consent. If approval of the transfer of the Licenses has not become final (all protests and appeals having been decided or dismissed, or barred by the expiration of time and the period for review by the FCC on its own motion of a grant by the FCC staff on delegated authority having expired without the initiation of such review or else such review having been undertaken and an affirmance of the grant of consent having become final) within twelve (12) months from the date of filing the applications for consent to assignment with the FCC, either party, if not then in default, may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other. Upon such termination, neither party shall have any further right or liability hereunder. Buyer may elect, however, at its sole risk to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under an FCC approval which has not become final as herein provided.

8.5 Control of Station. This Agreement shall not be consummated until the FCC has given its written consent to the transfer of the Licenses of the Station to the Buyer. Until the Closing, Buyer shall not, directly or indirectly, control, supervise, direct or attempt to control, supervise or direct the operation of the Station, but such operation shall be the sole responsibility of Seller.

(f) Further closing documents: Buyer shall have delivered to Seller the following documents and instruments, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Seller:

(g) Prepaid credits: except as otherwise provided herein, all prepaid expenses or advertisements shall have been prorated between Buyer and Seller to the Closing Date.

10 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions herein stated, the parties agree as follows:

10.1 Closing Date. The Closing of the transaction provided for in this Agreement shall be held not later than ten (10) business days following the date upon which the order of the FCC approving the assignment of the Licenses for the Station from Seller to Buyer has become final (i.e., no action, request for stay, petition for rehearing or reconsideration, or appeal is pending and the time for filing such request, petition, or appeal has expired and the period for review by the FCC on its own motion of a grant by the FCC staff on delegated authority has expired without the initiation of such review or else such review has been undertaken and an affirmance of the grant of consent has become final) (the "Closing Date"). Such Closing shall take place at Sheehan Phinney Bass +Green, PA or by mail at 10:00 a.m. on the Closing Date, or such other place and time as mutually agreed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall have the right to require closing at any time following FCC approval which has not yet become final.

10.2 Failure to Close; Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing Date, as follows:

- (a) by the mutual consent of Seller and Buyer;
- (b) as provided by Sections 6.4, 8.3, or 8.4 of this Agreement. or
- (c) by Seller, upon notice to Buyer, if on the Closing Date, without any breach by Seller of its obligations hereunder, Buyer has not complied with one or more of the conditions set forth in Section 9.2 (and such compliance is not waived by Seller), subject to the Conditional Cure Period (as defined below); or

(d) by Buyer, upon notice to Seller, if on the Closing Date, without any breach by Buyer of its obligations hereunder, Seller has not complied with one or more of the conditions set forth in Section 9.1 (and such compliance is not waived by Buyer);

In the event this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.2(a) or (b), this Agreement shall thereupon become void and of no effect, without any further liability on the part of any party and the Deposit and all accrued interest (if any) shall be returned to the Buyer. In the event this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.2(c) or (d), the parties shall have the remedies provided for in Section 11 below.

With regard solely to any termination pursuant to Section 10.2(c) above, if the following conditions are met, then prior to any such termination by Seller for failure by Buyer to comply with the conditions set forth in Section 9.2, Seller shall provide Buyer with a ten (10) calendar day cure period (the "Conditional Cure Period"): (i) no later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the Closing Date, and no earlier than the date that the order of the FCC approving the assignment of the Licenses has become final, Buyer shall have provided Seller with a certificate stating in reasonable detail its compliance as of such date with, or failure to comply with, the Section 9.2 conditions, and its reasonable expectations regarding compliance as of the Closing Date; (ii) the failure to comply is not (a) a failure to comply described in the certificate delivered pursuant to subpart (i) of this sentence, nor is it a failure to comply of which Buyer was aware (or should, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, have been aware of) as of the date of such certificate, nor is it a failure to comply the existence of which Seller communicated to Buyer no later than seven (7) calendar days prior to the Closing Date, and (b) such failure to comply is reasonably subject to cure by Buyer within the Conditional Cure Period. If the Conditional Cure Period is granted, then the last day of the Conditional Cure Period (or the next business day thereafter, if such last day is not a business day) shall be deemed to be the Closing Date for the purposes of this agreement.

11 Remedies. If this Agreement is terminated by Seller pursuant to Section 10.2(c) above, Seller shall be entitled to retain the Deposit as liquidated damages; in the event this Agreement is terminated by Buyer pursuant to Section 10.2(d), the Deposit shall be returned to Buyer, together with all interest accrued thereon (if any). Seller's remedies for breach by Buyer shall be to retain the Deposit as liquidated damages and to pursue, within 90 days after termination of the agreement by Seller, any actions and/or rights available to it under applicable law. In the event that Seller materially breaches this Agreement, it is agreed that the rights and privileges granted to Buyer in this Agreement are special and unique and that the Buyer shall be entitled to seek injunctive and other equitable relief, within 90 days following such breach by Seller, including without limitation specific performance, in a court of competent jurisdiction, and if such relief is granted, the Buyer shall be entitled to recover from the Seller all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in securing such injunctive or other equitable relief. Buyer may seek monetary damages arising from such material breach by Seller in lieu of specific performance, but Buyer may not seek both specific performance and monetary damages.

12. Transmitter Escrow. At Closing, Seller shall deposit into the Transmitter Escrow the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) as security for the obligations of Seller set forth in Section 6.6 above. The Transmitter Escrow funds shall be held by a mutually agreed third-party escrow agent pursuant to the terms of an escrow agreement mutually agreeable to the parties. The material terms of such escrow agreement shall provide for notice by Buyer in the event of a claim pursuant to such Section 6.6, a process for resolving any dispute, the payment of reasonable costs or damages out of the Transmitter Escrow in an amount not to exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) to Buyer in the event such claim is found to be valid, and payment to Seller of any funds remaining in the Transmitter Escrow promptly upon the termination of the 270 day escrow period set forth in Section 6.6 above.

13 Further Covenants.

13.1 Taxes. All taxes originating from this transaction shall be paid by the party responsible by law to pay such tax.

13.2 Expenses of the Parties. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all expenses involved in the preparation, negotiation, authorization and consummation of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, counsel and accountants, shall be borne solely by the party who shall have incurred the same, and no other party shall have any responsibility with respect thereto.

13.3 Confidentiality. Except for necessary disclosure to such party's directors, officers, members, employees, counsel, accountants, lenders and other agents, and except for the disclosure contemplated by Section 8 and such disclosure as may be required by law, each party shall keep the provisions of this Agreement confidential both prior and subsequent to the Closing Date. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no party shall make any press release or advertisement with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby without the prior consent of the other party, unless the disclosing party determines, upon the advice of counsel, that such action is required by law, and then the disclosing party shall promptly notify the other party of such disclosure.

13.4 Broker's Fee. Each party will be solely responsible for any and all brokerage fees asserted against it by a person or entity claiming entitlement to such fees as a result of this transaction.

13.5 Further Assurances. Each party shall cooperate with the other, take such further action, and execute and deliver such further documents, as may be reasonably requested by any other party in order to carry out the terms and purposes of this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, from and after the Closing Date:

(a) each party shall file all tax returns consistent with the allocation of the Purchase Price as agreed prior to closing by the parties, and no party shall take any position on audit or in litigation which is inconsistent with such allocation if such position would result in the payment of any additional tax by, or the disallowance of any deduction or credit to, any other party; and

(b) upon request, each party shall take such action and deliver to the requesting party such further instruments of assignment, conveyance or transfer and other documents of further assurance as in the opinion of counsel to the requesting party may be reasonably desirable to assure, complete and evidence the full and effective transfer, conveyance and assignment of the Assets and possession thereof to Buyer, its successors and assigns, and the performance of this Agreement by Seller and Buyer in all respects.

14 General Provisions.

14.1 Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. The several representations, warranties and covenants of the parties herein contained, and the provisions hereof which by their terms are to be performed after the Closing Date, shall survive the Closing Date for the periods set forth herein, and shall be effective regardless of any investigation which may have been or may be made at the time by or on behalf of the party to whom such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements are made.

14.2 Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended only by a writing executed by each of the parties hereto. No waiver of compliance with any provision or condition hereof, and no consent provided for herein, shall be effective unless evidenced by an instrument in writing duly executed by the party sought to be charged therewith. No failure on the part of any party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any of its rights hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by any party of any right preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right.

14.3 Assignment. No party shall assign or attempt to assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer may assign this Agreement to another entity with the prior written consent of Seller, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Prior to the grant of any such consent by Seller, Buyer shall be required to demonstrate that the proposed assignee shall be fully capable of performing Buyer's obligations hereunder, including without limitation demonstration of such assignee's financial capabilities and creditworthiness; any such assignment shall not relieve Buyer of its obligations pursuant hereto.
