

EXHIBIT 4

Community Declaration

SIDNEY, IOWA COMMUNITY DECLARATION

I am a resident of Sidney, Iowa and consider Sidney to be a separate independent community with its own identity and not a suburb of any other town or city. Sidney is separate from the Omaha urbanized area which is more than 35 miles away. Most of Sidney's residents do not work in the Omaha urbanized area. Sidney has its own local government, municipal services, businesses, health facilities, and newspaper.

Printed Name	Street Address	Signature	Date
Richard McClure	1025 Willowhane	Richard McClure	2-19-2012
Caroline A. Hopkins	2468 250th St.	Caroline A. Hopkins	2-19-2012
Barbara Kissel	505 Rupp Rd. Sidney, IA	Barbara Kissel	2-19-12
Sharon Barrett	317 Main St., Sidney, IA.	Sharon Barrett	2-19-12
Brett Brett Kissel	505 Rupp Rd. Sidney Ia	Brett Kissel	2-19-12
Jane McClure	1025 Willowhane Sidney, IA	Jane McClure	2-19/12
Rev. Dr. R.C. Kissel	505 Rupp Rd. Sidney, IA	Rev. Dr. R.C. Kissel	2-19/12
Randy Moreland	1101 Clay St. Sidney, Ia	Randy Moreland	2/21/12
Pat McCarney	511 Main Sidney, Ia	Pat McCarney	2-21-12

SIDNEY, IOWA COMMUNITY DECLARATION

I am a resident of Sidney, Iowa and consider Sidney to be a separate independent community with its own identity and not a suburb of any other town or city. Sidney is separate from the Omaha urbanized area which is more than 35 miles away. Most of Sidney's residents do not work in the Omaha urbanized area. Sidney has its own local government, municipal services, businesses, health facilities, and newspaper.

[illegible]