

Lotus Communications Corp. &amp; Affiliates,

Los Angeles, California

I. Overview

Lotus Communications Corp., a California corporation (“Lotus”), is a holding company in the broadcasting business. Its headquarters are located at 3301 Barham Boulevard, Suite 200, Los Angeles, California 90068. Lotus has nine corporate subsidiaries (the “Corporate Licensees”), eight of which are licensees of radio stations, and two limited liability companies (the “LLC Licensees”), aggregating 11 wholly owned subsidiaries (collectively, the “Subsidiaries”), 10 of which are licensees of radio or low-power television stations (collectively with Lotus, the “Company”). The tenth corporate subsidiary, Lotus Boise Corp., an Idaho corporation, holds no licenses but is included as a Corporate Licensee below because it is the intended assignee under the application to which this is an exhibit, or an application being filed simultaneously with that application. The Company’s broadcast holdings, which are summarized on the attached organizational chart, break down to (i) 35 full-power radio stations and (ii) two Low Power Television stations (plus 11 FM translators). The radio stations are in Arizona, California, and Nevada; the low-power television stations are in Arizona and Texas.

The outstanding equity of Lotus is comprised of 1144 shares of issued and outstanding common stock, of which 500 shares, designated Class A, is voting (the “Voting Stock”). The Howard A. Kalmenson Trust (Howard A. Kalmenson, Trustee) and The Lilli Kalmenson Rosenbloom Trust (Lilli Kalmenson Rosenbloom, Trustee) each own 50% of the Voting Stock. Lotus owns, beneficially and of record, all issued and outstanding equity in each of Subsidiaries, with Howard A. Kalmenson exercising all Lotus’ voting power in the Subsidiaries, as well as voting all Voting Stock. Consequently, he alone controls Lotus and each of the Subsidiaries.
