Purposes and Objectives

The goal of Network of Glory, LLC (a non-stock, not-for-profit broadcasting company, hereinafter "NGLLC") is to educate the public about mankind's three distinctive components: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It is our belief that all three of these components must be in balance for mankind to have a fulfilled life. NGLLC further believes that our American society and secular media have ignored the spiritual component of mankind.

Instructing the listeners to be people of faith, truth, and honesty; encouraging each listener to have an attitude of fairness and compassion as they deal with others in their communities.
2. To reinforce positive family values in the home. Educating and encouraging families to fulfill their respective roles in a productive society.
3. To serve as a venue for positive community news and activities.
4. To share positive and uplifting Christian music.

NGLLC will be non-denominational in religious focus. The organization's oversight board is composed of members who believe in and have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Board members will:

1. Set goals for, and give programming direction for, NGLLC's educational programming.
