Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	[13.1] Aqua Kids provides core programming in the area of biology and specifically the ecosystem related to the ocean, its tributaries and estuaries. Children can learn about the resources of the oceans and how protection of oceans is necessary to present and future generations. Not only does the show teach biological topics, but it aims to enrich children's lives by making them aware of future generations, the role they play now, and for generations into the future, with the biggest ecosystem on earth - the oceans. Each episode provides information related to a specific topic and gives an educational approach to understand the topic related to the entire ecosystem of the earth. Aqua Kids uses the technique of near peer mentors i. e., children to teach other children. Each episode employs Aqua Kids who ask questions and experience first hand the experience of the topic. For example, children might feed Manatees to experience the graceful, gentle nature of the animal and learn about their biology or dig through piles of silt dredged from the ocean depths to look for shark teeth to understand how shark continually grow teeth and lose old rows of teeth.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	[13.2] This series depicts the everyday lives of teenagers in the fictitious town of Edgemont, generally focusing on the children's activities at AC McKinley Secondary School. It's designed to entertain, inform and educate its core teen audience about issues that arise in school and at home, i.e., forming and maintaining family, friendship and romantic relationships, and facing ethical and moral choices. The program strives to demonstrate models of behavior for teen viewers, allowing them to consider choices that they may face, to witness potential outcomes of such choices, and to gain positive tools that may be used to resolve issues and conflicts in constructive ways. The series also touches on significant societal issues (ranging from diversity, racism and sexual identity to divorce, teen pregnancy, bullying, and alcohol/substance abuse), intending to stimulate conversations and complement classroom discussions

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Due to the end of analog on 6/12/09, KCPQ no longer has analog broadcasts, and therefore, the answer to 7(b) should be "no." Q13 Fox First Forecast Channel (powered by AccuWeather) is carried on digital channel 13.2. A list of child oriented public service announcements and core program synopses/episodic info pertaining to the quarter can be found in the station's public inspection file. Different episodes of DRAGONFLY TV and SWAP TV aired on the secondary channel 13.2 than aired each week on KCPQ's primary channel 13.1.
