Total times aired	13
Number of Preemptions	1
Number of Preemptions for other than Breaking News
Number of Preemptions Rescheduled	1
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chica is a five-year-old chick who spends her days with her parents in their costume shop, the Coop. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distractibility, judgment, and inter-personal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure-a fantasy transformation to animation-- where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development, and Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts, and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Pajanimals are a group of four preschool aged puppets who live together in house with their off-screen mother and father. We meet them in the bedroom, a dormitory of sorts, where they show us their nighttime routine of brushing their teeth and having quiet conversation before falling off to sleep. The quiet time, always turns into a discussion that results in a dream-like adventure to solve a problem, such as overcoming shyness, making a new friend, or dealing with a bully. The adventure takes place in several nighttime dream locales where special friends help them work through the socio-emotional problem of the day. Specific approaches to managing the problem are demonstrated and practiced during the adventure, and the children return home confident, getting ample rest for today and facing their issues tomorrow.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Justin Time features and little boy, Justin, who wants very much to master his destiny, have great adventures, and solve problems. He begins with a problem that vexes him and daydreams his way into an adventure that takes him to different places around the world, but also provides him with an experience that helps him solve his problem when he returns home. While on the adventure he is accompanied by Olive, a knowledgeable imaginary playmate, and Squidgy the morphing flying sponge, who provides commentary and comedy along the way. Justin's lessons involve learning, for example, that it takes focus to achieve success, failure can teach what we need to do to succeed next time, or when one path to solve a problem doesn't work, you can find another way to get to your goal. Justin is all about self-directed learning from the young child's perspective and imagination.

Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Tree Fu Tom, is a live action/animated series about a little boy who lives in a rural area and has a rich fantasy life in the woods behind his home. Tom uses specific movements to summon up magic powers that permit him to morph into an animated hero and fly around in Treetopolis, the fantasy version of his woods. While in Treetopolis, Tom and his friends, Ariella, Twigs, Squirmturn and Zigzoo will invariably run into a problem or disaster that needs fixing. Tom calls upon the audience to practice original dance moves that will bring him "Big World" magic so he and his friends can resolve their challenge of the day. Educational messages reinforce positive socio-emotional content, with examples that model: being loyal to good friends, knowing how to ask for help, doing the right thing instead of what is convenient, making the effort to share rather than being selfish, or relying on teamwork in order to accomplish a goal.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Lazy Town promotes fitness and healthful habits for children of preschool and primary grades. It takes place in an imaginary setting, Lazy Town, and most episodes relate children's eating and fitness habits to problem solving in their real world. The lead character, Stephanie, guides the audience through the story. She and her best friends, a group of human puppets reside in Lazy Town, where her uncle is the Mayor Milford Meanswell. The underground spy and influencer who defines the ethos of Lazy Town is Robbie Rotten, and he determined to ruin the health and fitness practices of Stephanie and her friends. When the kids get into difficulties with Robbie Rotten, it is Sportacus, gymnast/athlete who comes to the rescue from his home in a spaceship that hovers over earth, prepared to answer to any call for help. The ever-present theme of Lazy Town is to eat sports candy which consists of fruits and vegetables, get sufficient sleep, and go outside and engage in a wide range of physical activities, from playing games, holding athletic competitions, to building forts and play structures.

WNYT-TV/WNYA Children's Report 4th quarter 2013 October 2013 Youth Sports Concussions- October 7, 2013- 6:00 am Some of the nation's largest youth sports organizations are forming an alliance to address concussions. Pop Warner, USA Hockey, and USA Basketball among other organizations will partner with concussion experts and sports medicine professionals to put together the best practices for diagnosing and treating young athletes. Kids Concussions- October 7, 2013- 12:00 pm The National Sports Concussion Coalition will partner with Pop Warner, USA Hockey, USA Basketball and other organizations to put together the best practices for diagnosing and treating young athletes. Concussion symptoms include headache, nausea, vomiting; blurry or fuzzy vision; sensitivity to light and noise; difficulty remembering and thinking; balance, mood and sleep problems. Kids Blood Pressure- WNYA-October 7, 2013- 10:00 pm There's not enough evidence to suggest healthy kids should be screened for high blood pressure. Doctors writing in the Journal of the American Medical Association say they cannot find studies proving pediatric blood pressure screenings spotted kids who would have the condition as adults. There's also no evidence that treating the condition in youth leads to healthier adults. Early Intervention- October 8, 2013- 5:00 am There is concern if valuable early intervention programs for children with disabilities are getting proper support in New York State. State Senator Cecilia Tkaczyk of Duanesburg and State Assemblywoman Pat Fahy of Albany say they're concerned that what they call "Bureaucratic snafus" and poor funding are closing early intervention programs and others are declining to take in new children. Experts say early intervention has proven to help children with autism overcome their challenges and lead productive lives. Parenting is Exhausting- WNYA- October 10, 2013- 10:00 pm A study finds most parents think caring for their child is a more exhausting job than the one they get paid for. Parents rated 12 percent of childcare activities "very tiring" compared to five percent of work-related activities. A majority of parents also said childcare experiences were more meaningful than work activities. Tiring Child Care- October 10, 2013- 12:00 pm This may not surprise many of you but a new survey finds while parents are happy, they are exhausted. Most parents think caring for their child is a more exhausting job than the one they get paid for. Parents rated twelve percent of childcare activities as "very tiring" compared to five percent of work-related activities. However, a majority of parents said childcare experiences were more meaningful than work activities. Taking Scary out of Halloween- October 11, 2013- 5:00 pm While little kids love the candy at Halloween, they may not appreciate the ghosts, ghouls and goblins. Experts' say even kids as old as ten sometimes have trouble telling the difference between reality and make-believe. To help reassure your children they say try not to react yourself. Better Sleep for Kids- October 14, 2013- 5:00 pm If your child is continually acting out, you might want to re-examine their bedtime routines. A new study finds seven-year-old kids with irregular bedtimes may have more behavioral difficulties than kids with regular bedtimes. The research was based on more than ten thousand kids at ages three, five and seven. It found that as children progressed through early childhood without a regular bedtime, their behavior scores worsened. Once they switched to a more regular bedtime, there were obvious improvements. Amazon Hot Toys- October 15, 2013- 6:00 pm Amazon dot com looked at toys, books, games, electronics, and just about anything you can think of. They also got

Program Title	The Chica Show (DT.1)
Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturday/10a
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chica is a five-year-old chick who spends her days with her parents in their costume shop, the Coop. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distractibility, judgment, and inter-personal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure-a fantasy transformation to animation-- where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development, and Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts, and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.

Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturday/11a
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Justin Time features and little boy, Justin, who wants very much to master his destiny, have great adventures, and solve problems. He begins with a problem that vexes him and daydreams his way into an adventure that takes him to different places around the world, but also provides him with an experience that helps him solve his problem when he returns home. While on the adventure he is accompanied by Olive, a knowledgeable imaginary playmate, and Squidgy the morphing flying sponge, who provides commentary and comedy along the way. Justin's lessons involve learning, for example, that it takes focus to achieve success, failure can teach what we need to do to succeed next time, or when one path to solve a problem doesn't work, you can find another way to get to your goal. Justin is all about self-directed learning from the young child's perspective and imagination.

Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturday/11:30a
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	2 years to 5 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Tree Fu Tom, is a live action/animated series about a little boy who lives in a rural area and has a rich fantasy life in the woods behind his home. Tom uses specific movements to summon up magic powers that permit him to morph into an animated hero and fly around in Treetopolis, the fantasy version of his woods. While in Treetopolis, Tom and his friends, Ariella, Twigs, Squirmturn and Zigzoo will invariably run into a problem or disaster that needs fixing. Tom calls upon the audience to practice original dance moves that will bring him "Big World" magic so he and his friends can resolve their challenge of the day. Educational messages reinforce positive socio-emotional content, with examples that model: being loyal to good friends, knowing how to ask for help, doing the right thing instead of what is convenient, making the effort to share rather than being selfish, or relying on teamwork in order to accomplish a goal.
