Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Come spend a 'day in the life' with the monsters at Wimzie's house and you'll never want to go home. It's the magical kind of daycare that leads to delightful adventures for the pre-school child. All of the characters are wild and wooly on the outside - but definitely human on the inside.After spending a half hour in this very special home away from home, no one will leave the world of Wimzie unchanged. It is the world where the real and the imaginary come together, where self esteem is the order of the day, where the emotions and the relationships of today's preschoolers, who are growing up to be ten in the year 2000, are on the top of the list of story material. Five year old Wimzie and her mother Graziella, an airline pilot, live in Yaya's house as does Rousso, Yaya's best friend - even if Yaya is at least one hundred years and fifty years old (and counting) and Russo is much more than a hundred years her younger. Graziella is more than ecstatic to have found a warm and comfortable home as well as a loving environment for her daughter, Wimzie, while she is off on her somewhat unorthodox work schedule flying around the world. It is within this setting that we meet Jonas, Archibald, Loulou, Horace, and Azuline as they work out the relationships that grow out of being together every day, of growing up just a little bit every day. They learn not only about themselves but also about the world outside the door: music, nature, art and fun are woven with a touch of humour throughout a storyline solidly crafted on socio-affective objectives. Music, songs, the art of discovery. Rhymes, magic, the sharing of secrets with friends. Storytime, word games, the acceptance of "your" way. This is what Wimzie brings into the viewers' home. A daycare full of little monsters - what could be more real? Conflict, difficulty, resolution, triumph. Laughter, tears, anger and joy. Wimzie is a world of enchantment.

The United Way works to carry out the mission of building a strong community for everyone living in Dane County. WKOW had a two week long fundraising campaign for the United Way and raised thousands of dollars to help families in our community. Pipers in the Prairie, hosted by Aldo Leopold Nature Center and sponsored by WKOW offered a unique and unforgettable seasonal celebration unlike anything in Madison! The evening commenced with harvest hors d'oeuvres, Irish dance demonstrations, nature activities for the kids, a silent auction and scotch tasting, as Celtic music enchants with its ethereal and enchanting melodies. The American Heart Association is the largest voluntary health organization working to prevent, treat and defeat heart disease, stroke and other cardiovascular diseases. These diseases, the Nation's No.1 and No.3 killers, claim more than 865,000 American lives a year. WKOW helped raise over $300,000. Fall Fest celebrated the season at an outdoor family festival at the Aldo Leopold nature Center for one and all! This year's theme, "Creatures of the Night," featured a night full of spooky activities even the youngest tot or tween enjoyed! WKOW sponsored the Buddy Walk for Down's Syndrome Walk on October 26. Our group walked from the Monona Terrace to the State Capitol and back to the Terrace to help raise money for children with Down's syndrome. Beginning in October, WKOW features a flu report from expert Christi Archer each week talking about the who, what , where, when and why's of getting a flu shot for adults and children. WKOW sponsored Toys for Tots in November and December. Viewers were invited to drop off a new unwrapped toy to Toys for Tots to help over 12,000 children in Dane County. WKOW's Bob Lindmeier and Santa hosted the Grand Lighting Ceremony of the Holiday Fantasy in Lights on November 15. Viewers enjoyed the Holiday Lights at Olin park all season long, with proceeds going to Second harvest Bank and many other local charities. WKOW employees were bell ringers for an entire day. Viewers stopped by our location and made donations to the Salvation Army. WKOW bell ringers helped raise $924.15 in one day. Money goes towards helping families in Dane County. Chosen as one of the Most Incredible Themed Races, Jingle Bell Run/Walk for Arthritis was a fun and festive way to kick off the holidays by helping others! Participants were encouraged to wear a holiday themed costume. The event raised funds to fight arthritis, the nation's leading cause of disability. WKOW offered FREE lift tickets to all WKOW viewers to be used on our "Ski Free Weekend." Thousands of parents and their children took part in this promotion. WKOW sponsored the American Red Cross Holiday Blood Drive on December 24. Blood donation is down during the holidays. Throughout our one day promotion over 600 pints of blood were donated. During November, a few episodes of "Zoo Clues" that aired on the station's This-TV multicast stream featured an E/I logo that was not completely visible as a result of network issues. On December 15, 2013, as a result of a network error, the two episodes of "On The Spot" that aired in their regularly scheduled time slot ran without the E/I logo. Consequently, those episodes were made good in their second homes on December 29, 2013, with the E/I logo properly displayed.
