Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Sabrina at twelve is half mortal, half witch, struggling to master both roles at the same time as she enters the complex and often confusing world of junior high school. Young Sabrina's lesson in how to be a good witch are demanding, but they pale in comparison to what she must learn in order to be a good huma: loyalty, honesty, self-sufficiency, tolerance, perseverance, independence. As she struggles to understand and master her human side, Sabrina serves as an ideal role-model to understand what it takes to become a fully functioning, truly good human being.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	In a spectacular countryside, there is a fantastic place called Horseland, a complex of stables, arenas, barns, rolling green pastures, and riding trails through verdant mountain forests. A lot of kids board horses here. We follow the adventures of three girls and a boy, 11-12 years. They become best friends as they learn about horsemanship, the intricate dance of dressage, the thrill of show jumping and the care and grooming of their animals.
