Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The key educational objective of this program is to familiarize children with the animals of the North American continent, their interaction with other animals and their environment. Throughout the series emphasis will be placed upon protecting endangered species and the impact that humans have while interacting in their environment. We expect that children viewing this program will achieve a greater understanding of nature and specific animal species because of the up close and detailed photography of the series. Through this understanding, it is hoped children will better relate to the natural environment as it exists in North America and learn to protect its natural species. This program airs on the station's digital channel 1.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This series engages views 13-16 and beyond by showing how animals share the same behaviors, challenges, and triumphs that humans do. Behaviors run from basic, like parental instinct, to complex, like the formation of social structures. Viewers increase their aquatic I.Q. by seeing how human life mirrors that of animals on land and in water. Vital to this process is the shows host, Jeff Corwin, whose uncanny ability to install empathy for even the tiniest of creatures, allows viewers to rally behind the featured animals and see how important they are to all life on our planet. This program airs on the station's digital channel 1.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program is a musical variety show that is driven by three siblings, and empowers children to accomplish their goals and their dreams. AZE2accomplishes this through interviewing people who excel in their profession and have a positive message for kids. As hosts, these children entertain and inform their audience through song, dance, music and dialogue. This show supports and encourages respect for others, having integrity, following directions, putting forth your best effort and taking responsibility; which is a wonderful message for American youth. This program is an upbeat, diverse and entertaining series that will inform young people on a variety of subjects, while keeping their interest. This program airs on the secondary digital stream, COOL TV 40.2. The station ceased broadcasting on this secondary channel on 8 /31/12.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Gina D is a fun loving, positive role model who has the demeanor and appearance of a young teacher and is playful in her approach to her target audience. In addition to puppets and animated characters, Gina D is surrounded by a group of whimsical characters which include Simon, Miss Muffin the Cook, Mr. Pockets and Pierre. As the program takes on an interactive quality through questions and reactions from Gina to a multi-culturally diverse group of youngsters who are sometimes on and off camera, the show maintains the attention of young children to help further develop their self-image, social skills, math readiness, and reading readiness. Various themes throughout the program may include bike safety, not talking to strangers, and stopping at traffic lights. Through different scenarios and easily learned original songs, these lessons are imparted to the target audience. This program airs on our tertiary digital stream, The Country Network 40.3
