Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Inspired by the beloved works of best-selling children's author Richard Scarry, Busytown Mysteries brings the popular adventures of Busytown to preschoolers with an educational, problem-solving twist. Children can follow classic characters such as Huckle, Sally and Lowly as they scour Busytown on fun-filled adventures looking for answers to life's puzzles. Each episode focuses on fostering viewers' problem solving abilities, as the characters use their skills of observation to collect facts, draw inferences from those facts, and ultimately reach conclusions. Each episode also develops vocabulary through words and concepts that are part of the episode's overall theme. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. The program aired on the main digital station.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On May 7, 2011 "Horseland II" was interrupted by a CBS Special Report at 11:58am. The first 28 minutes of the program aired. On April 24, 2011 "Teen Kids News" only aired the last 15 minutes of the program due to technical issues with our server. KELO-TV's main digital stream is a CBS affiliate. The 2nd digital stream is a MyNetwork TV affiliate. KELO-LAND TV has placed 42 weather forecasting and measurement instruments in area schools. The systems, that retail for approximately $6500 each, include curriculum on CD-ROM for school students. Information from these is used during our newscasts making mention of the school location we are using. The first 8 systems were donated by KELO-LAND TV. Additional systems are purchased by the schools or donated by area businesses. KELO-LAND TV also has a weather net van. The Live Doppler Weather Net Van, Dorothy, is a weather station on wheels. The Live Doppler 2000 Weather Team goes to schools and organizations all over KELO-LAND to help students and viewers understand weather. They demonstrate how our weather team works together with each other and state-of-the-art technology to keep viewers informed. Along with the Live Doppler 2000 Weather Net Van, the weather team put together a school curriculum to assist teachers in educating students about weather. Following is a list of appearances made by Dorothy this quarter. April 18, Pettigrew School in Sioux Falls. School talk to third graders. April 20, West Central. School talk to seventh graders. May 11, Brandon. School talk to fourth graders. May 18, Montrose. School talk to third graders. Throughout the course of a year, KELO-LAND TV provides free tours to many groups for informational and educational purposes. Although every tour is individualized to meet the needs of that specific group, each tour tries to cover the basic components of the television station: news gathering, programming, production, commercial enterprise and television technology. Most tours are scheduled to stay in the studio to see a live newscast in order to get a better understanding of how television comes together by using talent, teamwork and technology. Here is a list of tours that our marketing department performed this past quarter: (Tours were given at approximately 11:15 AM-12:35 PM or 4:15 PM-5:35 PM) April 4, 2011 - 6 cub scouts pack361 Sioux Falls April 6, 2011 - 20 West Central high school students April 7, 2011 - 20 West Central high school students April 19, 2011 - Mark Twain students April 20, 2011 - 16 Brookings high school students June 13, 2011 - 12 students from Hull Reformed Christian school June 14, 2011 - 15 kids from Citibank Family Center June 23, 2011 - 15 kids from Discovery Learning Center June 23, 2011 - 10 women from Palisades Lutheran
