Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Jack Hanna's Into the Wild" Shot from a number of photographic perspectives, the viewer is introduced to the biodiversity of the area, how animals are adapted to the environment, and the changes humans have imposed on the environment as well as the positive impact of local conservation efforts in the region. While Jack Hanna introduces the habitat and wildlife, regional guides are given the "expert" status and the viewer becomes engaged in the natural environment with the same enthusiasm as Jack's family. It is also important to note that in addition to the educational content of the program, Jack brings the affective aspect to wildlife education, engaging the emotional appeal of the wild animals and the conservation message to encourage the audience to take an active interest in preserving wildlife. Combining data-oriented scientific information with concern for the conservation status of wildlife and the environment enforces the educational value and impact of the program. "Jack Hanna's into the Wild" is broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Career Day" is a television program that introduces young adults to career exploration and awareness. Students often do not know what they want to do and are unsure of potential interests they may have that could be a career. "Career Day" provides an avenue to view experts in their respective fields as they discuss their work, the education/training to prepare for the job, and experiences that led them to choose their career. To encourage students to make informed decisions, young adults must be introduced to career awareness, such as the concept that success in most careers requires education and training. Middle school is an ideal age at which to expose students to the challenging world of work. The program's motivational and inspirational message of each guest empowers audiences of all ages to investigate career opportunities, which have been proven to enhance academic performance, facilitate high school completion and encourage post secondary education. Each segment of "Career Day" delivers an educational and informational message that supports current social, intellectual and emotional aspects of children 13 and up. Attributes and advice emphasized by guests instill a grounded balance of priorities, dedication, and perseverance children can apply to their lives. "Career Day" is broadcast on the station's secondary digital channel only.

"MLB Player Poll" will serve the educational and informational needs of teenagers by providing insight into the opinions and perspectives of Major League Baseball Players. Specifically, the 2012 season of "MLB Player Poll" will educate young viewers on how the game of baseball is played and provide instructions regarding the techniques that successful players use. The show will also glean insight into players' preferences in areas outside of baseball with topics like "What Career Interests You After You Retire From Baseball?", or "What Is Your Favorite City To Play In?" or "What Player From History Would You Most Like To Watch/Play For/Play Against?" In addition, "MLB Player Poll" will provide examples of healthy debate, expressing an opinion using supporting evidence and analyzing statistics to confirm or refute a previous held belief. The results of the poll question that will serve as the heart of each episode will be represented graphically using traditional charts and graphs in a manner designed to help teenagers process similar information they will encounter in newspapers, magazines and textbooks. Finally, the emphasis on physical education in each episode of "MLB Player Poll" will inspire young viewers to get off the couch, go outside and exercise. MLB Productions, with continued guidance and advice from NASPE (National Association for Sport and Physical Education), will strive to make every episode of "MLB Player Poll" meet the FCC's E/I standards for young adult programming. The program is regularly scheduled and airs between the hours of 7AM and 10PM MT. The program is 30 minutes in length, and is identified as an educational and informational show, targeted to teens (13-16 year olds), at the beginning and through each broadcast and in listings provided to publishers of program guides. "MLB Player Poll" is broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.

See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Stations Primary Digital Channel - ABC: A Better Community is a joint ABC Network and affiliate campaign dedicated to building a better community through public service initiatives and community outreach with pro-social messages that inform, serve the public interest and inspire a call to action. A Better Community is designed to utilize the broad reach of the ABC Television Network, the positive influence of talent and the power of on- and off-air programming to inspire individuals to make a difference in their communities through volunteerism and public service. "ABC is focusing A Better Community on volunteerism because the idea of giving back to one's community is of high importance to the Network, our talent and our viewers - it's a call to action we are confident will resonate with viewers of all ages and backgrounds," "Volunteering is something that everyone can do, regardless of personal interests or talents - something that is beneficial not only to those who receive the goodwill of others, but also to the volunteers themselves. It can truly be life-changing for everyone, volunteering is not only important, but fun, easy, and rewarding." The centerpiece of the campaign is a series of PSAs that will air on the Network and affiliates throughout all day parts. The spots feature talent from ABC News, ABC Daytime, ABC Primetime and ABC Kids, who deliver pro-volunteering messages along with the call to action, "get involved and help build A Better Community." Each PSA encourages viewers to log onto ABetterCommunity.com where they will find tips on how to get involved, profiles of various national non-profits that offer volunteer opportunities, special features on Network initiatives, behind-the-scenes looks at the campaign and more.
