Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program is about a young boy, Tom, who enters the enchanted and magical kingdom of Treetopolis. He and his friends in Treetopolis invariably run into a problem or disaster that needs fixing. Tom then calls upon viewers to do original dance moves that will bring him "Big World" magic, so he and his friends can resolve the challenge of the day. The dance moves also get the viewer to exercise. The educational messages of the program reinforce positive socio-emotional content and use examples to model what it means to be loyal to your friends, how to ask for help, do the right thing rather than what is convenient, make an effort to share rather than be selfish, and rely on teamwork to accomplish a goal. This program aired on the station's main digital stream.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WNBW continued its commitment to the Backpack for Kids program by packing backpacks with food for eligible kids to take home over the weekends. Through our locally produced PSA's, we are able to raise awareness about hunger in our local communities. It helps hungry kids have something to eat. WGFL has committed to a year-long sponsorship with the United Way and run ongoing spots for the children's agencies that they help like Children's Home Society, Child Advocacy Center, Kids Count, Boys and Girls Club, Early Learning Coalition, Comprehensive Youth Development and more. WNBW runs PSA's on an on-going basis targeting important kids subjects like the Environment, the importance of Recycling, the importance of Education and How to handle Bullying.
