Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	THE BUSY WORLD OF RICHARD SCARRY This animated series is based on the books by Richard Scarry. The fictional city Busytown is an enchanting place that's abuzz with energy and life. Episodes are divided into multiple segments with different themes. The first and last segments involve the children in Busytown exploring their community. At the end of each segment the children have learned a little about their community and the world they live in. The middle segment shows children life in other cities featuring daily activities of adult characters in places such as Paris or Rome. Each episode includes two song segments in which the first, "Imagine That", teaches various things like general science to how banks work. The second song segment that teaches safety is called "Play it Safe". The aim of the series is to stimulate imagination and foster vicarious play, teach pro-social behavior (such as generosity, friendliness, persistence, altruism, understanding of others' points of view, empathy, acceptance of others' idiosyncrasies), help children move beyond family attachments to the world of friendships and community, help children develop skills on which academic learning depends such as attention, language, memory, active processing of a story and an interest in reading.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	KUTV/KMYU 2 News/Salvation Army Angel Tree - The KUTV 2News Salvation Army Angel Tree program is a statewide holiday promotion designed to help underprivileged children and seniors. In 2012, KUTV partnered with Shopko, Cyprus Credit Unions, The Grand America Hotel, Les Olson and Siegfried & Jensen, to help enhance the tremendous efforts of the Salvation Army in providing a very special holiday season to those children and seniors in need. Throughout the promotion, trees laden with "angels" were placed in all the Shopko stores and Cyprus Credit Union locations along the Wasatch Front from Logan to Spanish Fork. Each angel contained the wish list of a needy child or senior. Citizens "adopted" angels from the tree and provided gifts as indicated on their "adoption card" thus giving gifts recipients would not receive otherwise. The promotion was supported with an extensive on-air campaign which included production, internet inclusion, on-site collateral and staffing, and news coverage.
