| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Culture Click is a weekly half-hour series that explores the genesis of - and reasons behind- cultural events that permeate our everyday lives. Developed and produced for viewers aged 13-16, host Nzinga Blake opens each episode from her virtual reality set with a list of what's trending on search engines that week. These topics will serve as a jumping-off point for a deep dive into the culture viewers 13-16 will embrace. Each week Nzinga will analyze and answer the questions that shape our society - using the power and speed of the internet and user-generated questions and content. Experts in pop culture will join her to add insight and historical perspective. And most importantly, viewers will come away with a week's work of "aha" moments to share with their friends and family. Six degrees of separation takes on a whole new meaning, and there's no limit to what viewers will learn when they experience Culture Click. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22 year old host who opens viewers' eyes to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations in Food for Thought. Each weekly-half hour, produced for ages 13-16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people and learning about different cultures. Claire serves as a role model for 13-16 year old viewers by showing her passion for her family, life, and healthy living by sharing stories in the kitchen. Creative inspiration can come from any place at any time - sometimes from family, sometimes from friends, or even from bloggers needing her help. No matter how exotic or local the location, she's always in search of new tastes and places to explore. Based on her unique perspective gathered throughout each episode, Claire will teach the audience how to prepare the "inspired" dish while promoting a healthy attitude towards food and life. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | "Jack Hanna, one of America's most beloved naturalists and adventurers and the Director Emeritus of the Columbus Zoo in Ohio, takes viewers on exciting journeys across the continents to learn about different animal species and their interaction with the people committed to their care and preservation. Jack talks with people that are knowledgeable about each animal and habitat, teaching as he goes. Working from his "base camp" at Busch Gardens in Tampa Bay, Florida, Jack Hanna features up-close and "animal" visits to zoos, aquariums, animal theme parks, wildlife preserves and related institutions around the world where animals are kept, studied, and trained, and where the main focus is the protection, preservation, and understanding of wildlife and its habitats. Jack also works with the staff at Busch Gardens as well as Sea World and highlights their work in education, conservation and specialized programs. Each program is designed to reveal to children the world around them in a way that presents positive role models and pro-social values within an environmentally responsible universe." |

| Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | WJRT continues to air short-form PSAs specifically directed to the needs and concerns of children within children's programming. Throughout the quarter, WJRT hosts high school students for a day on the job experience. Students become involved in the day-to-day operation of a television station in accordance with their career preference; i.e., weather, sports, news or production. They learn the behind-the-scenes workings at a television station. Coats for Kids Campaign: WJRT ABC12 collaborated with Salvation Army to collect coats for children in 6 counties. We ran public service announcements and live news stories asking viewers to donate a coat for a child. While final numbers are not yet in, this campaign helped hundreds of children in need of a coat, hat, scarf and mittens. School Spirit: A project developed by WJRT ABC12 NEWS in collaboration with the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan. Throughout the school year Pep Rallies are organized on Friday morning with students filling the bleachers at 5AM to demonstrate their school spirit by collecting food and money to donate through the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan to feed hungry people in their own community. The need for food in the 13 counties that WJRT-TV serves has escalated tremendously due to the economy. The shelves of the Food Bank and area pantries and soup kitchens empty quickly |
