Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Career Day is a television program that introduces our youth to career exploration and awareness. Students often do not know what they want to do and are unsure of potential interests they may have that could be a career. Career Day provides an avenue to view experts in their respective fields as they discuss their work, the education/training needed to prepare for the job, and the experiences that led them to choose their career. To encourage students to make informed decisions, they must be introduced to career awareness, such as the concept that success in most careers requires education and training. Middle school is an ideal age at which to expose students to the challenging world of work. The program's motivational and inspirational message of each guest empowers audiences of all ages to investigate career opportunities, which has been proven to enhance academic performance, facilitate high school completion and encourage postsecondary education. Each segment of Career Day delivers an educational and informational message that supports current social, intellectual and emotional aspects of children ages 13 and up. Attributes and advice emphasized by guests instill a grounded balance of priorities, dedication, and perseverance children can apply to their lives.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	"WNCF TRANSMITS ON RF CHANNEL 31 BUT IS KNOWN TO ITS VIEWING AUDIENCE AS CHANNEL 32. THE LATTER IS USED IN THIS REPORT TO IDENTIFY THE PROGRAMS AIRING ON EACH OF ITS MAIN AND MULTICAST STREAMS. The station airs two non-core E/I programs on Saturday mornings from 6-7 A.M. No local commercials are placed in any of the syndicated children's programs. Local time is filled with public service announcements targeting the youth, their parents, and care-givers. Each Monday - Friday different elementary school classes in the River Region area were featured giving the Pledge of Allegiance during the station's Early Morning News Program. The news aired several stories on education, where students were featured during the quarter such as the Farm to School Program where 1,500 schools in Alabama have access to fresh fruits vegetables, many coming from the state. Alabama farmers are compensated for getting their food in schools' lunchrooms. The children learn about different kinds of foods and how and where they are grown; International Walk To School Day; World Education Games where local students competed with 8,000,000 students from 200 countries, and 20,000 schools competed against each other; a new all boys school in the area; Red Ribbon Week (drug prevention campaign); American Education Week (parents and area leaders visit schools to see the good things that are happening); a Robotics event at Brew Tech; Montgomery Bus Boycott Presentation; and an Academy Bike Give-a-way for students being respectful, responsive, and safe. Students were interviewed and shown on air during these reports. Golden Apple Awards were presented to a kindergarten teacher in Prattville; a Career Tech and Business Teacher at Luverne High; a 1st grade teacher at Highland Home School in Crenshaw County; a Language and Arts Teacher at Hayneville Middle School; a Guidance Counselor at Bellingrath Middle School; and a 2nd grade Teacher at Redland School in Elmore County. When asked what make their teachers special, some of the comments were "she has a love for school, for us, and for learning; she is a great teacher every day and is always bubbly and happy; she sits down with us one on one to make sure we get it; she teaches us to do stuff and have fun; he works hard, is a great teacher, dedicated, has a lot of energy, and we love him; he tells us to be passionate about what we do, everything we do, love what we do, do what we love, and then we can't go wrong." Students were interviewed and shown on air during these presentations. The station will continue to report on, and highlight the accomplishments of the youth in our viewing area, and to provide the best E/I programming that is available.
