Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program aired on KCCI's digital multi-cast channel 8-2 (Me-TV Network): "Saved By The Bell" is a television series targeted to teens 13-16 years of age, which explores social themes and coping strategies through the daily school life of six teen-aged friends at Bayside High, who help each other make the most of growing up in a complicated world. The multi-ethnic cast members serve as role models for young teen viewers as they deal with such issues as dealing with the death of a loved one, the right to say "no," the meaning of heroism, teenage alcohol use and other issues of particular concern to young teens. In 1990, a U.S. Congress report recognized "Saved By The Bell," describing the program as "valuable" and "aimed at high school students and addressing typical problems and conflicts faced by teens."

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During first quarter 2016, KCCI aired 6 additional episodes of the regularly scheduled core children's program, "Teen Kids News." In each instance that a "Special Edition" of Teen Kids News aired, it aired back-to- back with another episode of Teen Kids News, which created a series of "mini-marathons" of the program at points throughout the quarter. These additional airings of the program were intended to help increase audience awareness of the program and to further educate and inform teen children viewers about topical, current news events during a significant election year. These additional core episodes were promoted via on-air crawls, and the television listing services were notified in advance of their scheduling. In addition, one or more episodes of children's programming that was preempted during the quarter was not rescheduled. The Digital Core Programming Summary section of this report would not permit the station to include preemption reports for such unrescheduled preemptions, and FCC Staff has advised that no preemption report for such unrescheduled episode(s) is necessary.
