Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Supported by a team of Georgia Aquarium biologists, veterinarians, and other experts, Jeff Corwin travels the world to explore the Earth's least understood resource, our oceans and waterways and the animals which call them home. He swims with manta rays, pointing out that their body form was the inspiration for the design of the Stealth jet. While in the water with whale sharks, he takes samples of their blood to better understand their biology. As Jeff continues his journey through each episode, the viewer is able to connect with these animals and learn how important they are to all life on the planet, as well as how sea life connects to life on the rest of the globe. Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WUTB continued to serve the educational and information needs of children throughout the first Quarter 2016 through broadcast and outreach activities. The station continued to air PSAs for local and national organizations serving the interests of children including spots for the Dept of Health and Human Services, Dept of Education, Boy Scouts, Baltimore City Fire Department, local libraries and schools. WUTB participated in the Champions of Courage Black History Month Essay Competition for Maryland middle and high schools. Students were challenged to write essays saluting positive role models who continued Dr. Kings lessons and legacy promoting brotherhood, tolerance, equality, fairness, self determination and pride in the community. The essays aired as 30 secs spots from 01/19 /16 through 03/06/16. WUTB presented the BMore Health Expo with the theme of be more health ...Spring into Action. At the Expo attended by more then 30,000, childrens health, safety, nutrition, and physical activities were showcased. The Expo also showcased a Health and Wellness Career Fair anchored by the MDBio Foundation which provided age appropriate hands on STEM activities and career exploration. New in 2016, the Bmore Healthy Expo featured a Family Meal Time Zone promoting the importance of preparing and sharing a meal together as a family and how mealtime impacts a childs development milestone, language development and socialization. It should be noted that the ASN network was launch on 41.3 effective 01/11/16.
