Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Because station KAIT ceased analog operations and converted to digital-only operations, Questions 7(b) and 7(c) are no longer applicable." On October 10, the station experienced a technical issue that resulted in five of its E/I programs running out of sequence on its multicast stream. Each show aired its entirety, but did not air in its normal timeslot. Accordingly, the station is reporting a core weekly average of 2.80 hours for the 4th Q on its secondary channel. In order to make up this shortfall, the station will air two additional E/I programs on its multicast stream beginning Sunday, January 10 and each will run through the end of the 1st Q.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Floogals is an animated show starring three space aliens--Fleeker, Flo, and Boomer-- who have been sent to earth to explore, investigate, discover and report their findings to their superiors at Floogal headquarters. The diminutive Floogals are no taller than a large safety pin and their visual perspective is literally the point of view of the show. With the multiple challenges of their size and ignorance of all things Hooman [that's Floogal-speak for human], the Floogals have a lot of work on their hands. They are engaged in the dual processes of discovery and problem solving as nothing on earth is familiar to them. Much like young children, they begin by encountering something new and then go through a comedic multi-step process of watching, listening, touching, and note-taking until they've figured out what and how their new discovery fits into the Hooman universe.
