KRBC-TV and the NBC Television Network provided specific public service announcements targeted toward the needs of children in our community through THE MORE YOU KNOW SERIES which brings the nation's most important social issues to the forefront, and remains a trusted voice for sharing knowledge to improve lives and inspire action. The More You Know's comprehensive website (themoreyouknow.com) includes in-depth resource and referral information on the campaign's important focus issues including: HEALTH - fighting childhood obesity, encouraging nutrition and physical fitness, ENVIRONMENT - encouraging everyday actions that reduce environmental impact, EDUCATION - recruiting new teachers and promoting their long-lasting impact, DIGITAL LITERACY & INTERNET SAFETY - sharing online safety tips and information, and DIVERSITY - embracing differences and promoting inclusion, tolerance and respect. Also featured on site is The More You Know Learning series' Growing Up Online, a free eBook on digital literacy and Internet Safety. Growing Up Online is an important tool to initiate conversation with children about online safety. The eBook is a media-rich, two-part learning resource that provides easy-to-use information about navigating the digital world in a unique and engaging way. Part one includes safety tips, discussion questions and key takeaways for parents and teachers. Part two features four entertaining video comic books for children, focused on real situations that come up when kids go online. KRBC participated in the Jackets for Joy coat drive. We collected donations of coats and jackets for local people in need. On-air coverage of the coat drive accompanied this effort. KRBC's Share Your Christmas food drive helps local kids and families in need. As part of the coverage, KRBC did a segment on the Backpacks for Kids program which provides food for local children in need. KRBC's weekly Heart to Heart series helps local children in foster care become adopted. Interviews done in local newscasts with representatives from local children's organizations including: Abilene Zoo, Abilene Public Library, Abilene Independent School District and more. Tours of the station are given regularly to school children (1st through 12th grade) with explanation of department responsibilities.
