| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | On The Spot is a series that draws engaging content from the broadly define subject areas of science, history, art, technology, geography, math, history, language, music, and sports. Culture, both American and global, is also tapped for rich visual content. The pace is fast, the content interesting and unusual, and the visuals are what expects from television: animations, HD photography, and a mix of world-sized and microscopic points of view. Very important for entertainment and information-and often overlooked-is the practice in On The Spot of citing sources for information. This not only gives the 21st century viewer a handle to check facts on a phone, it also makes the statement that citing sources is important. Because the series pulls in startling and odd facts and information, this is crucial. The episodes grab the viewer with challenges both informal and formal (timed challenges). Writer Peter McDonnell pulls from an astonishingly wide of content and consumes a huge number of informative bites in each episode. |

This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | Due to a technical error at the Bounce network, the E/I children's programs, "All in With Laila Ali," and "Everyday Health," were aired without the E/I graphic through October 15, 2016. Some episodes of the E/I program, "Culture Click" aired without the E/I graphic through November 5, 2016. The network was put on notice and it remedied the issue, and WDFX has implemented additional procedures to monitor the presence of the E/I graphic. The affected programming was reaired with the E/I symbol on Sundays from 9am -- 11:30am, October 30, 2016 -- December 11, 2016. The telecast of Aqua Kids that aired on WDFX 33.1 on Saturday, October 1st at 11:00 AM is a previously scheduled make good from 3Q 2016 and is not counted toward the 4Q averages of e/i programming. It was previously counted in the averages for 3Q 2016. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | On The Spot is a series that draws engaging content from the broadly define subject areas of science, history, art, technology, geography, math, history, language, music, and sports. Culture, both American and global, is also tapped for rich visual content. The pace is fast, the content interesting and unusual, and the visuals are what expects from television: animations, HD photography, and a mix of world-sized and microscopic points of view. Very important for entertainment and information-and often overlooked-is the practice in On The Spot of citing sources for information. This not only gives the 21st century viewer a handle to check facts on a phone, it also makes the statement that citing sources is important. Because the series pulls in startling and odd facts and information, this is crucial. The episodes grab the viewer with challenges both informal and formal (timed challenges). Writer Peter McDonnell pulls from an astonishingly wide of content and consumes a huge number of informative bites in each episode. |
