Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22-year-old host who opens viewers' eyes to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations in Food for Thought. Each weekly-half hour, produced for ages 13-16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people, and learning about different cultures. Claire serves as a role model for 13-16 year old viewers by showing her passion for her family, life, and healthy living by sharing stories in the kitchen. Creative inspiration can come from any place at any time - sometimes from family, sometimes from friends or even from bloggers needing her help. No matter how exotic or local the location, she's always in search of new tastes and places to explore. Based on her unique perspective gathered through each episode, Claire will teach the audience how to prepare the "inspired" dish while promoting a healthy attitude towards food and life.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C. F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	As to sections 7(b) and (c) Statement of Explanation, WMBB ceased analog transmission on February 17, 2009, and broadcast digital only during Fourth Quarter 2014 forward. WMBB anchors conducted station tours for area groups and organizations within the community to share news and weather production information, and to provide information on careers within the broadcast industry. WMBB staff participated in various community events to help benefit area educational and service organizations. To encourage kids to make education a priority and be active, students who have a 3.0 or higher GPA, are a High School Senior, and a major contributor on their Varsity team may be nominated for "Scholar Athlete of the Week." Scholar Athlete of the Week airs on Sunday nights on News 13 at Ten. WMBB is a Crimestoppers partner and was instrumental in creating "Campus Crimestoppers," a program that includes placement of anti-crime/anti-bullying awareness visuals on area school buses. The program also provides students and school staff with information on anonymously reporting criminal and/or suspicious activity. On August 26, 2016 WMBB added two new digital channels 13.3 (Laff) and 13.4 (Escape) to their programming line-up.
