Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	KMPH-CD continued to serve the educational, informational, and social needs of children throughout the 3rd Quarter 2017 through extensive broadcast and outreach activities. The station has continued to air PSAs for local and national organizations serving the interests of children and families, including The Ad Council Childhood Seat Belt Safety campaign "Battlefield" stresses to viewers the importance of children wearing their seat belts at all times; The Partnership for Drug-Free Kids Campaign 2017 "Aaron" shows viewers the results of a child taking prescription drugs; The Entertainment Industry Foundation and Albertsons Companies Foundation campaign, "Hunger Is Hungry for More featuring actress Viola Davis," creates awareness and funds to fight childhood hunger in America; And the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital's Campaign giving families hope when their children are receiving medical services at St. Jude hospital. We also have presented stories in our newscasts highlighting children's issues, including a report on how children can be affected by medical waste and how to dispose of dangerous material, a story on how to prepare for a new school year, and a report about a 14-year-old boy treated at a hospital after being hit by a SUV, and the importance of staying safe in school zones. The station continues to offer tours of our facility to local schools to show where and how the news is produced, and to answer questions on what skills are needed to work in the industry, including education. The station's on-air talent maintains an extensive schedule with community groups and schools.
