Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The "Aqua Kids" have their sights set on Saving the Oceans of the World. Pollution and Abuse of these incredible natural resources are taking their toll. Entire Species of fish have disappeared, Marine Mammals are dying from ingesting plastic, and toxic waste in our waterways is destroying habitat and marine life. The "Aqua Kids" will be looking for adventure and knowledge, and along the way, tackle some ecological dilemmas. This group of Knowledge-Seeking kids will start right in their own backyards, beginning with local streams that eventually lead to the Oceans of the world. By pointing out the problems they encounter, they hope to educate their peers on what they can do to solve these environmental dilemmas. In most cases, it is not too late to change the tide of destruction. With the help of groups like the National Aquarium in Washington, DC, the North Bay Adventure Camp, the Chesapeake Bay Foundation and many more organizations, the "Aqua Kids" will continue to pursue their goal.

Length of Program	60 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This is a live action, half-hour television program designed to meet the educational and information needs of children. Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22 year old who opens viewers' eyes to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations. Each weekly-half hour, produced for ages 13 -16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people and learning about different cultures. In order for parents, children and listing services to clearly identify the programs as ones that fulfill the FCC programming requirements that meet children's educational television needs, each episode is closed-captioned and contains and E/I icon for the duration of the program with the recommended parental rating icon - typically, if not always, TV-G.
