Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During the 4th quarter WTLW aired PSAs created by students that worked with station employees to write and shoot PSAs that were then edited by staff. These PSAs will air on WTLW thru the 4th quarter of 2018. During the 4th quarter WTLW produced and aired the local production, Whiz Quiz. This show is a quizzing competition featuring 16 schools in each session, with each school vying to out-quiz the competing school. During the 4th quarter WTLW produced and aired the local production, Holiday Music Festival. This 3.5 hour program showcases choirs from more than 20 area high schools. During the 4th quarter WTLW attended, and promoted an Operation Christmas Child Packing Party to encourage area parents and students to pack a box for children living in areas that are economically challenged. During the 4th quarter WTLW produced and aired a package showcasing three sisters who attend local high school, LCC - showing that golf has always been a family bonding opportunity. With their dad serving as a golf pro, these girls have grown up with a club in their hands and now are making a big mark for the LCC T-birds golf team.
