Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Chica Show features a 5 year old baby chick that spends her days with her parents in their costume shop. The shop's one employee, Kelly, doubles as Chica's nanny and the ensemble is rounded out with Bunji, a large floppy eared rabbit and Stitches, a straw mannequin that sits in the window. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distraction, judgment and interpersonal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development as Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	La Abeja Maya (Maya the Bee) is an entertaining pre-school series that furthers the educational and informational needs of children by promoting the social and emotional goals of independence, empathy and diversity. The series also serves the cognitive and intellectual needs of children by teaching them about biodiversity and the importance of protecting nature. The main character, Maya is a free spirit with a curious demeanor and fondness for discovery. With her eagerness for adventure, she lives free in the meadow, because the world is just too big and too fascinating to stay in the bee hive. Through Maya's open-mindedness, children learn to foster their curiosity and to accept and respect others. On her way through the meadow Maya and her many friends teach children valuable lessons about supporting the weak, learning from each other and appreciating different perspectives on life.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Chica Show features a 5 year old baby chick that spends her days with her parents in their costume shop. The shop's one employee, Kelly, doubles as Chica's nanny and the ensemble is rounded out with Bunji, a large floppy eared rabbit and Stitches, a straw mannequin that sits in the window. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distraction, judgment and interpersonal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development as Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.

Liaison Contact

Question	Response
Does the Licensee publicize the existence and location of the station's Children's Television Programming Reports (FCC 398) as required by 47 C.F.R. Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii)?	Yes
Name of children's programming liaison	JOSH YOUNG
Address	PO BOX 60150
City	MIDLAND
State	TX
Zip	79711
Telephone Number	(432) 567-9999
Email Address	joshyoung@kwes.com
Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Due to a technical problem stemming from Telemundo's network feed, episodes of Nina's World, The Chica Show and La Abeja Maya that aired on October 7, 2017 and October 8, 2017 did not have the E/I bug for the entirety of the program. The E/I bug was present for a portion of the programs. The issue was caught and corrected by KWES, and KWES, in conjunction with the Telemundo network, have taken ameliorative steps to avoid this error from occurring in the future. Due to scheduling issues stemming from the Telemundo network, one episode of Nina's World was unable to be aired in a second home timeslot. The station is proactively working with Telemundo to ensure regularity in its provision of E/I programming, and the station will provide an average of E/I programming in Q1 2018 to ensure its six month average is sufficient.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chicken Soup for the Soul's Hidden Heroes, hosted by Brooke Burke-Charvet, is a television series developed for teens in which each episode reveals everyday people showing compassion and kindness towards strangers simply out of the goodness of their hearts. They are not looking for recognition but we believe their amazing stories deserve to be told. Viewers will learn that volunteering, philanthropy and giving back to the community are within everyone's reach. The producers of Chicken Soup for the Soul's Hidden Heroes series designed the program to educate and inform children 13-16 years of age.
