Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The half-hour weekly series, Sea Rescue, features the rescue, rehabilitation and - in many instances - release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Produced for ages 13-16, Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. Viewers will also learn that there's a reciprocal benefit: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology. This information adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species. Each week, Sea Rescue will leave its audience inspired by the real-life stories of the featured animals and rescuers and with a fuller understanding of the rich array of sea life with which we share our planet. The regularly scheduled episodes were preempted by the ABC Network for College Football and the LPGA CME Group Tour Championship. The following episodes were rescheduled due to ABC Network live coverage of the LPGA CME Group Tour Championship: Sunday, November 19th and 26th. The following episodes were rescheduled due to ABC Network live coverage of College Football: Saturday, December 2, 16, and 30. The episode on 11/19 was fully preempted by live network sports, and was rescheduled on the same day from 3:00-3:30pm. The preempted episode from 11/19 that was rescheduled on the same day from 3:00-3:30pm was preempted for the first 18 minutes by an overrun of live network sports. As a result, this episode was rescheduled and ran complete on 11/26 from 4:00-4:30pm. On air informational crawls ran the same day in the regularly scheduled E/I block.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22 year old host who opens viewer's eyes to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations in Food for Thought. Each weekly half-hour, produced for ages 13-16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people and learning about different cultures. Claire serves as a role model for 13-16 year old viewers by showing her passion for her family, life, and healthy living by sharing stories in the kitchen. Creative inspiration can come from any place at any time - sometimes from family, sometimes from friends, or even from bloggers needing her help. No matter how exotic or local the location, she's always in search of new tastes and places to explore. Based on her unique perspective gathered throughout each episode, Claire will teach the audience how to prepare the "inspired" dish while promoting a healthy attitude towards food and life.
