Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On February 17, 2018, WPBF broke into Jack Hanna's Animal Adventures for a breaking news report on the Parkland shooting, the cut-in lasted for 5:15. On March 1, 2018, as a result of an issue with the programming feed from the Estrella network, the same episode of the E/I show Reino Animal aired on this station at both 6 am and at 7 am The station has counted only the 7 am airing towards its Core programming average for the quarter. On March 17, 2018, WPBF broke into Rock The Park at 11:12:01 and continued into Vacation Creation until 11:33:30, for a breaking news report on the bridge collapse in Ft Lauderdale. One or more episodes of children's programming that was preempted during the quarter was not rescheduled. The Digital Core Programming Summary section of this report would not permit the station to include preemption reports for such unrescheduled preemptions, and FCC Staff has advised that no preemption report for such unrescheduled episodes is necessary.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Jack Hanna's Animal Adventures is a live action television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children 13-16. In each program, the cameras follow the host, Jack Hanna, as he spends time with nature's creatures across the continents. Jack talks with people that are knowledgeable about each animal and habitat, teaching as he goes. Each program is designed to reveal to children the world around them in a way that presents positive role models and pro-social values within an environmentally responsible universe.
