During the Sunday School time we give the young people a chance to interact with the staff allowing them time to discuss problems or difficulties they're going through. If requested by the young people, the staff member will make visits to the Center during the week. We desire to show these youths that life is not worthless, but has meaning. We seek to provide hope and an alternative to the crime and violence of the city. For some, they will not receive any visits except from this. 04. Some of the staff members are involved in youth outreach outside the realm of broadcasting. Paul McClain works as a leader and/or teacher in a youth program at his local church.
