Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Wimzie's House, which airs on our second digital channel 40.2, is an entertaining series for preschool kids and is a whimsical, educational puppet series about a five year old, half bird half dragon, who learns valuable life lessons. The series presents the delightful adventures of Wimzie, a playful five year old puppet monster; her baby brother Bo; her parents Graziella and Rouse; her lively 150 year old grandmother Yaya, and her adorable puppet monster friends. Together they learn skills of caring and sharing at Wimzie's House - a home daycare center unlike any other. Through unforgettable learning adventures and original toe-tapping sing along songs, young viewers are introduced to topics like friendship, generosity, jealousy, diversity and sibling rivalry, all from a preschooler's point of view. The award winning series was created by a renowned team of educational advisors and designed to nurture children's sense of identity, expand their relationships, stimulate their curiosity, and encourage self expression and self esteem. Wimzie's House helps children learn to express themselves and communicate with their families and friends. From Yaya's cozy kitchen, where the kids experiment with culinary projects, to the comfortable living room couch where they curl up for naptime, Wimzie's House provides the perfect place to explore both social and family issues that children face every day.
