We also have presented stories in our newscasts highlighting children's issues, including; Reminding everyone to make sure children always wear life jackets when they go out on the water, after a five year old boy died following his fall off a boat on Lake Kaweah which possibly could have been prevented had he been wearing a life jacket; Reminding viewers to practice safety by following new traffic safety laws changing the legal alcohol limit for ride sharing drivers, and requiring children to wear seatbelts on buses that are equipped with them; The effort by Clovis Unified staff updating its campus intruder emergency plan, and having safety experts come in to help schools improve their own safety protocols to better protect our children; Reminding parents that after a number of nationally reported school shootings, it is important to make sure children don't take toy guns to school, as one 4th grader recently did to a local elementary school, which could have led to an unfortunate outcome. The station continues to offer tours of our facility to local schools to show where and how the news is produced, and to answer questions on what skills are needed to work in the industry, including education. The station's on-air talent maintains an extensive schedule with community.
