Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Much of the food Americans eat is produced by farmers and ranchers in the country's heartland, but many children don't know how it's produced. "America's Heartland" provides information about the people and processes responsible for the availability of food and fuel across the country and around the world. The show's reporters and producers tell stories in topics that include farm families, consumer issues, animal welfare and crop sustainability. Children will learn about the production of the food and fuel they consume. Some episodes also take the show abroad to countries such as Egypt and Taiwan, to show the impact American agriculture has on the global economy. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE MAIN DIGITAL STREAM 4.1)

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The Licensee sponsors public appearances by the news anchors, meteorologists and San Antonio Living hosts to local schools to promote the importance of education and community service. On May 19th Licensee sponsored a citywide Health and Wellness Expo at the Henry B. Gonzales Center. Danny Seo of NBC's TMYK show Naturally, Danny Seo was our guest speaker. Danny shared wellness and environmental lifestyle tips with our guests. Our expo vendors also offered "free" health screenings to all patrons. On June 9th our on-air Anchors worked the News4 Booth at Folklife Festival, the biggest cultural celebration in Texas. This was a great opportunity for our on-air team to interact with our viewers while celebrating our city's rich heritage at the Texas Institute Of Cultures.
