Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WLVI completed its DTV transition and terminated all analog operations by June 12, 2009. On January 25, 2011 the station launched The Country Network (TCN) as a digital subchannel. The station terminated its affiliation with ZUUS Country Network on November 16, 2015 in order to carry the BUZZR game show network on that digital subchannel. Children's programming for BUZZR is listed in the "Digital Core Programming" section of this report. Technical problems on July 15 caused the station to lose more than half of DragonflyTV. Although this was due to unforeseen technical difficulties, we did re-air the program on Sunday, July 22 at 12:30PM. EXHIBIT - "A" -PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS: For a complete listing of public service announcements designed specifically for children, please refer to WLVI's on-line Public Inspection File. Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Did I Mention Invention brings viewers fascinating stories of invention while shining a light on everyday innovators. With each episode, the host presents reports of human ingenuity and inspiration from around the U.S. and, in some cases, from around the world. Viewers learn about innovators young and old, what it takes to bring their vision to life, and little-known facts about the history and process of invention and innovation. The program ignites a spark within the hearts and minds of audiences, encouraging viewers to try their own hand at creating something new.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Ready, Set, Pet educates and informs teens and their families about pet adoption, responsible pet ownership and the importance of a green space for pets. In each episode, the host guides a family through the pet adoption process after a careful look at their unique situation to help them make an informed decision in finding the right pet for their lifestyle. While the family visits local shelters and rescues, experts revitalize their outdoor space to make a safe and eco-friendly home for their new pet. In the end viewers see family members overcome their disagreements and make the tough decision on which pet will join the family. The program teaches viewers that thoughtful preparation is key when learning to care for an animal's needs.

Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The hosts of Welcome Home run a non-profit dedicated to helping deserving families in transition by turning their house into a home--and changing lives along the way. In each episode, we meet a family emerging from difficult circumstances as they finally move into a new living space to call their own. To help the family with their fresh start, the hosts and a dedicated team of designers and volunteers transform the family's bare house into a warm home by using goods and services donated by people in the community. The new home will provide much-needed stability to meet the family's specific needs, stimulate their interests and promote their goals. The program teaches viewers the importance of giving back in their communities, to never give up when faced with a tough situation, and gratitude for the basic living necessities that we often take for granted.
