| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | | Much of the food Americans eat is produced by farmers and ranchers in the country's heartland, but many children don't know how its produced. Americas Heartland provides information about the people and processes responsible for the availability of food and fuel across the country and around the world. The shows reporters and producers tell stories in topics that include farm families, consumer issues, animal welfare and crop sustainability. Children will learn about the production of the food and fuel they consume. Some episodes also take the show abroad to countries such as Egypt and Taiwan, to show the impact American agriculture has on the global economy. The program aired on the secondary digital stream 40.2. |

This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | KBTV FOX 4 continued its commitment to children in Southeast Texas as a partner in various fund raising and community service projects. In partnership with local business, we provided tickets to the Lamar Cardinal Football games. We supplied the Art Museum of SETX AMSET a Reporter for a Day package to raise money for the Childrens Museum. We participated in the Youth Solutions Career Day, sponsored by Region V and attended by high school juniors and seniors throughout our viewing area. We have partnered with the American Heart Association, to alert children and parents to the dangers of heart disease. We also partnered with the United Way of Northern Jefferson County to raise money to help the children of SETX, presenting the second annual Hometown Huddle Chili Cookoff. We are starting a health segment to air on the Noon Show, KFDM News at 10, and FOX 4 News at 9, which addresses health issues which sometimes pertain to children. We included a Color the WX contest in our Hurricane Preparedness program, to further involve children in hurricane awareness and safety. We continue airing public service announcements alerting children to the dangers of texting and driving, Feed America, the dangers of diabetes, car seats, and financial literacy. We run public service to Stop Bullying, Spread the Love, confidence, the importance of Child Safety Seats, gun safety, and minority education. In addition, we air spots for drug free kids, suicide prevention, adopting shelter pets, and teaching kids CPR. |
