KXNW-TV is involved in several special projects including: 5NEWS In School - A program where KXNW invites area schools to sign up through our website to have KXNW employees visit their school and talk to students about a career in broadcasting, weather, severe weather safety, etc. KXNW participates in the Partners in Education (PIE) program which establishes mutually beneficial relationships between businesses and schools. Over 100 local companies and businesses partner with area schools to mentor, provide services, equipment or whatever may assist in the educational goals of a particular school. KXNW is a Partner in Education to Darby Jr. High School in Fort Smith. KXNW donates used printer toner cartridges to Darby and they use the money to purchase equipment for the school (such as copiers, toner cartridges, etc.) and for educational field trips. We also provide emcees and judges for various school activities throughout the year. Backpack Buddies - KXNW teams up with Community Services Clearinghouse, Inc., to bring balanced meals to local kids through the Backpack Buddies program. The Clearinghouse supplies area residents with Meals for Kids food list so they can purchase individually sized packages of the suggested foods and donate them to the Clearinghouse who then provides the items to area kids who otherwise would not have enough to eat. KXNW helps Community Services Clearinghouse with various projects throughout the year. Pledge of Allegiance - A project where KXNW invited area schools and organizations to contact us about having their school or organization recite the Pledge of Allegiance which would then air during our morning newscast. News Producer Brittany Boyett is participating in a mentoring program through Fort Smith Public Schools. She is assigned a student and meets with them twice a month. The goal behind the program is to serve as a role model as well as helping to improve the student's academic performance, behavior and attendance. She is mentoring at Darby Junior High School. Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chronicling the adventures of Dr. Chris Brown, DR. CHRIS PET VET allows viewers unique insight into the life of one of the world's busiest vets and the animals that he treats. For those animals that require specialist services, Dr. Chris calls on his good friend and colleague Dr. Lisa Chimes, who works at a small animal specialist hospital. The show usually consists of three segments, following the doctor as he treats various animals that are in trouble and offering the viewer opportunities to understand the challenges a veterinarian daily faces. The series focuses on how the doctor investigates the individual problem and tries to develop solutions that on the surface would seem confounding to the viewer. As such the show not only offers a view into careers in and responsibility for taking care of pets, but also into problem solving strategies and behaviors. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
