Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

Welcome Home is a live-action half-hour television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children aged 13-16. Hosts Rod and Teger Strasberg run a non-profit dedicated to helping families in transition by turning their house into a home and changing lives along the way. Each episode, viewers meet a family emerging from difficult circumstances as they finally move into a space they can call their own. To help them with their fresh start, Treger, Rob and a dedicated team of designers and volunteers will transform the family's bare house into a warm home by using goods and services donated by people in the community. The new domicile will provide needed stability to meet the family's specific needs, stimulate and reflect their interests, and promote their achieving their goals. Welcome Home will teach viewers the importance of giving back in their communities, to never give up when faced with a tough situation, and gratitude for the basic living necessities we often take for granted.
