Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Welcome Home is a live action, half-hour television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children aged 13-16. Hosts Rob and Treger Strasberg run a non-profit dedicated to helping deserving families in transition by turning their house into a home - and changing lives along the way. Each episode, we meet a family emerging from difficult circumstances as they finally move into a new living space to call their own. To help the family with their fresh start, Treger, Rob, and a dedicated team of designers and volunteers will transform the family's bare house into a warm home by using goods and services donated by people in the community. The new home will provide much-needed stability to meet the family's specific needs, stimulate their interests, and promote their goals. Welcome Home will teach viewers the importance of giving back in their communities, to never give up when faced with a tough situation, and gratitude for the basic living necessities that we often take for granted.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Due to an error in programming provided directly from the network, on October 27, 2018 at 12:30pm, episode 304 of Rock the Park aired without the required E/I graphic. As a result, we did not include the October 27 run of Rock the Park episode 304 in our core E/I totals. Rock the Park episode 304 ran again in its second home on November 3 at 1:00pm with the E/I graphic, and that run is included in the core E/I programming. On November 17, 2018, the Bounce network (channel 65.2) changed its lineup replacing "Vacation Creation With Tommy Davidson and Andrea Feczko" with "Game Changers" on Saturdays at 11:00am and 11:30am until further notice. Crawls aired in advance, promoting the change.
