Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Paraiso infantil is a series of shows based values using morals of fables from book readings and the bible; teaching kids about social skills, handy crafts, roots of our Hispanic cultures, book reading, good behavior, teaching of songs. All this with the idea to teach kids how to interact and grow with good moral values. Paraiso Infantil is a variety show that explores various moral and cultural values in the Latin community. This locally produced program mainly contains classroom scenes, where children both learn and participate in decisions of moral and learn of a larger world around them. There are also parts where the children themselves practice the delivery of gospel. Beyond the religious message, it's a way for children to directly learn from their peers. The last element of the show is cultural dance presented by children. This acts as a cultural lesson and a presentation of Latin heritage.
