Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	'Welcome Home' follows hosts Rob and Treger Strasberg as they run a non-profit dedicated to helping deserving families in transition by turning their house into a home with their motto, 'design with dignity' and changing lives along the way. In each episode, we meet a family emerging from difficult circumstances as they finally move into a new living space to call their own. To help the family with their fresh start, Treger, Rob and a dedicated team of designers and volunteers will transform the family's bare house into a warm home by using goods and services donated by people in the community. The new home will provide much-needed stability to meet the family's specific needs, stimulate their interests, and promote their goals. 'Welcome Home' will teach viewers the importance of giving back to their communities, to never giving up when faced with a tough situation, and to have the gratitude for the basic living necessities that we often take for granted.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chicken Soup for the Soul's Hidden Heroes, hosted by Brooke Burke-Charvet, is a television series developed for teens in which each episode reveals everyday people showing compassion and kindness towards strangers simply out of the goodness of their hearts. They are not looking for recognition but we believe their amazing stories deserve to be told. Viewers will learn that volunteering, philanthropy and giving back to their community are within everyone's reach. The producers of Chicken Soup for the Soul's Hidden Heroes series design the program to educate and inform children 13-16 years of age.
