Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program aired on KCCI's main digital channel (8-1): Animal trainer Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch, where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the overarching theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. Following McMillan's investigations into how to retrain these animals to make them welcome members in the homes of families is both educational and inspirational - encouraging this demographic to become sensitive to our own and others' behavior and teaching how we as individuals can make a difference. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program aired on KCCI's main digital channel (8-1): Chronicling the adventures of Dr. Chris Brown, Dr. Chris Pet Vet allows viewers unique insight into the life of one of the world's busiest vets and the animals that he treats. For those animals that require specialist services, Dr. Chris calls on his good friend and colleague Dr. Lisa Chimes, who works at a small animal specialist hospital. The show usually consists of three segments, following the doctor as he treats various animals that are in trouble and offering the viewer opportunities to understand the challenges a veterinarian daily faces. The series focuses on how the doctor investigates the individual problem and tries to develop solutions that, on the surface would seem confounding to the viewer. As such, the show not only offers a view into careers in and responsibility for taking care of pets, but also into problem solving strategies and behaviors. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The station took advantage of additional local program opportunities in first quarter to further enhance and expand its E/I programming offering by broadcasting four episodes of "Jack Hanna's Into the Wild." In addition, on January 27, 2019, we aired an episode of "Teen Kids News" at 11:30am, directly after a regularly scheduled episode of that program. On March 30, 2019, we aired two episodes of "Teen Kids News" back-to-back in a mini-marathon style program block. One or more episodes of children's programming that were preempted during this quarter were not rescheduled. The Digital Core Programming Summary section of this report would not permit the station to include preemption reports for such non-rescheduled preemption's, and FCC staff has advised that no preemption report for such non-rescheduled episodes is necessary.
