Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	KTVL TV airs a variety of Public Service Announcements (PSAs) in support of important children's issues this quarter. The station also participated in the Pear Blossom Festival Parade, a family-focused parade in April. KTVL hosted a tour of about 30 5th graders from Patrick Elementary, where the students watched a live newscast and were told about different jobs at the station. From the information of the tour, the students worked on a project where they were to produce, shoot, edit and perform a 20-minute news program. In April the station also participated in the SOU Job and Career Fair speaking to students from the University and Ashland area schools. Also this quarter the station manned a booth at the Medford Comic Con where staff members talked about broadcasting and the station's schedule related to children's programming.
