Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Much of the food Americans eat is produced by farmers and ranchers in the country's heartland, but many children don't know how it's produced. "America's Heartland" provides information about the people and processes responsible for the availability of food and fuel across the country and around the world. The show's reporters and producers tell stories in topics that include farm families, consumer issues, animal welfare and crop sustainability. Children will learn about the production of the food and fuel they consume. Some episodes also take the show abroad to countries such as Egypt and Taiwan, to show the impact American agriculture has on the global economy. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE MAIN DIGITAL STREAM 4.1)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Supported by a team of Georgia Aquarium biologists, veterinarians, and other experts, Jeff Corwin travels the world to explore Earth's least understood resource, our oceans and waterways and the animals which call them home. He swims with manta rays, pointing out that their body form was the inspiration for the design of the Stealth jet. While in the water with whale sharks, he takes samples of their blood to better understand their biology. As Jeff continues his journey through each episode, the viewer is able to connect with these animals and learn how important they are to all life on the planet, as well as how sea life connects to life on the rest of the globe. Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Throughout the quarter Licensee sponsors public appearances by the news anchors, meteorologists and San Antonio Living hosts to local schools to promote the importance of education and community service. In 3Q19 the Licensee began a campaign to support the St. Jude Dream Home. At the end of the quarter, the station raised $420,000 towards a goal of $975,000. A Drive For Education Truck Raffle was held to get school supplies to local families struggling to prepare their kids for the school year. The station held two phone banks during news and lifestyle shows to drive ticket sales. A record setting total of $120,000 was achieved. In August 2019 a successful blood and marrow drive was held with participation from news, lifestyle and sales teams. The Licensee supported the San Antonio Park Foundation's 4th Of July event at Woodlawn Park. The station aired PSAs and hosted a meet-n-greet with main anchor Randy Beamer who also emceed the fireworks show at the end of the event. The station also supported the San Antonio Park Foundation's Jazz'SALive event at Travis Park in September. The station aired over 100 PSAs for the event and help a meet-n-greet during the two-day festival.
