Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Smart Start Kids is a locally-produced, award-winning children's television program where preschoolers are the "stars" of the show. Produced in a magazine-style format, the children interact with show host "Willa" and travel to fun, educational places across the state of North Carolina. Together, they experience trips to new geographical locations, learn from hands-on activities, and create their own memorable stories and music. Children viewers can also participate from home or a childcare center by calling the Smart Start toll-free phone number and sharing their own exciting, personal stories such as a first trip to the beach or the arrival of a new puppy. This toll-free phone number provides access for all North Carolina children. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chronicling the adventures of Dr. Chris Brown, DR. CHRIS PET VET allows viewers unique insight into the life of one of the world's busiest vets and the animals that he treats. For those animals that require specialist services, Dr. Chris calls on his good friend and colleague Dr. Lisa Chimes, who works at a small animal specialist hospital. The show usually consists of three segments, following the doctor as he treats various animals that are in trouble and offering the viewer opportunities to understand the challenges a veterinarian daily faces. The series focuses on how the doctor investigates the individual problem and tries to develop solutions that on the surface would seem confounding to the viewer. As such the show not only offers a view into careers in and responsibility for taking care of pets, but also into problem solving strategies and behaviors. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal trainer Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch, where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the overarching theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. Following McMillan's investigations into how to retrain these animals to make them welcome members in the homes of families is both educational and inspirational - encouraging this demographic to become sensitive to our own and others' behavior and teaching how we as individuals can make a difference. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C. F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On November 7th, WRAL produced and aired the Fayetteville Veterans Day Parade honoring our past and present military men and women. The broadcast was aired in the public's interest with thousands watching from their homes. All affected preempted core children's programming (noted in this report) airing on 11/7/15 was rescheduled and the public was given advance notification of the rescheduled air date and time. On November 21st, WRAL produced and aired the WRAL-TV Raleigh Christmas Parade. Over 65,000 people lined the streets of downtown Raleigh for this spectacular show, in addition to thousands watching from their homes. This event, ranked as one of the largest parades on the East Coast, was also aired in the public's interest. All affected preempted core children's programming (noted in this report) airing on 11/21/15 was rescheduled and the public was given advance notification of the rescheduled air date and time. On Dec 13th, Game Changers with Kevin Frazier (WRAL Channel 5.1) was mistakenly preempted due to a scheduling error in which it was replaced with a different CBS network core children's program. The preempted show was rescheduled and aired on 12/19/15 with advance scheduling notice provided to the public. Due to a change in the station's core children's programming line-up, the following shows shifted to a new day and/or air time during the last 3 weeks in the quarter: Game Changers and Hidden Heroes (both air on WRAL Channel 5.1). The new regular weekly schedule for both programs is noted in this report. WRAL seeks to positively influence the lives of our younger audience through station tours, routine school visits, station talent involvement at family-friendly events, and donated PSA production and/or airtime. Below is a detailed accounting of the station's efforts this quarter: Station tours were conducted for 60 school-age children The following family-friendly events benefiting children were sponsored by WRAL-TV: Special Olympics/Over the Edge, Oct. 2, NC State Fair, Oct 15-25, Fayetteville Veterans Day Parade, Nov 7, The WRAL-TV Raleigh Christmas Parade, Nov 21, WRAL's Coats for the Children, Nov 21-Dec 31 with a daylong telethon on Dec 11, A Dickens Holiday/Fayetteville Arts Council, Nov. 27, Fayetteville Christmas Parade, Dec 12, WRAL High School Wrestling Tournament, Dec 18-19 and First Night Raleigh, Dec 31 (a family-friendly New Year's Eve celebration). CHRIS PET VET allows viewers unique insight into the life of one of the world's busiest vets and the animals that he treats. For those animals that require specialist services, Dr. Chris calls on his good friend and colleague Dr. Lisa Chimes, who works at a small animal specialist hospital. The show usually consists of three segments, following the doctor as he treats various animals that are in trouble and offering the viewer opportunities to understand the challenges a veterinarian daily faces. The series focuses on how the doctor investigates the individual problem and tries to develop solutions that on the surface would seem confounding to the viewer. As such the show not only offers a view into careers in and responsibility for taking care of pets, but also into problem solving strategies and behaviors. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
