This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	13WHAM-TV and WHAM 13.2 run several public service announcements designed to serve the informational needs of children including, but not limited to: parental involvement, mentoring, online safety, drunk driving prevention, anti-drug and anti-smoking messages, the importance of literacy and education: arts, math and science, environmental awareness; nutrition, hunger prevention, childhood obesity, child abuse, cultural and racial diversity, fatherhood involvement, autism awareness, and adoption. 13WHAM-TV also offers a program called Bright Spot which highlights a person or organization performing an act of kindness. The Bright Spot program focuses on good deeds done by people who go beyond the normal or expected to help others or enrich our community. WHAM-TV's weather department offers behind-the-scenes tours of the weather department to school classes. In addition, station tours are offered on a special request basis to Cub and Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts where they learn about news gathering, weather forecasting, and television production. 13WHAM-TV produces a weekly public affairs program, "Many Voices, Many Visions", celebrating cultural diversity. The weekly show and monthly program guides are available on the station website www.13wham.com . Educators are invited to use the materials in classrooms.
